My dear Wanda

I was delighted to get your charming letter yesterday. Yours & mamas came together. Mr Johnson sent a boy with them to the hotel. He also sent the telegram. Then came Helens letter & you may be very sure I was happy. I am going to sail for Europe tomorrow & I will now go without feeling so bad though I do feel lonsome about going over there alone. But I suppose I'll find friends & feel better than I expect. for every-body is good to your papa wherever I go. I hope you will not feel to lonsome. I'll not stop very long. I'm so glad you & Helen are well, & Grandma & Mama getting better. Here are some plants, Smilax huckleberry & Polypodium from the same place as Helens.

It is late & I have still much to do to get ready. May the angels keep you my darling
My first darling babe good night & Goodbye

all goodbyes with the love of John Munsie
