

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1893-06-29

Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Dan[iel H. Muir], 1893 Jun 29.

Ann Gilrye Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann Gilrye, "Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Dan[iel H. Muir], 1893 Jun 29." (1893). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 950.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/950>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Postage June 29th 1898

Dear Dandi

I sincerely congratulate you on this your fiftieth Birthday Hoping Heavens best blessings will ever rest on you and on all your family

It is a source of great comfort to me to think that all of my family have been spared thus far -

Last week I had a letter from John informing me that he would leave New York for Scotland on the 24th of this month on the Commodore Steamer Estremia and expects to be across ~~the~~ the ocean in seven days, I hope he will have a safe and pleasant voyage although he prefers the wild places of the world, he has been writing another article on Alaska and only finished it while at New York.

I had a letter from David quite lately he seems to be quite well satisfied with his home in Cal. His Father and Mother are anxious to go out to them and are trying to sell their places here.

We are having very dry hot weather at present but still we are all quite well.

With love to all the family
I am affectionately
Mother