

1893-07-12

Letter from John Muir to Helen [Muir], 1893 Jul 12.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to Helen [Muir], 1893 Jul 12." (1893). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 955.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/955>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Knockinhair

Dunbar Scotland
July 12, 1893

111
Hello Midge, my aunt Helen are you all right. I'm in Scotland now when I used to live when I was a little boy, & I saw the places where I used to play & the house I used to live in I remember it pretty well, & the school where the teacher used to whip me so much though I tried to be good all the time & learn my lessons.

 The round tower on the hill in the picture at the beginning of the letter is one of the places I used to play at on Saturdays when there was no school

Here is a little sprig of heather a man gave me yesterday & another from Wanda. The heather is just beginning to come into bloom I have not seen any of it growing yet & I don't know when the man found it. But I'm going pretty soon up the mountains & then I'll find lots of it, & work it be-lowly, miles & miles of it - covering whole mountains & making them look purple.

 I think I must camp out in the heather.

I'm going to come home just as soon as I get back from Switzerland, about the time the grapes are ripe I expect I wish I could see you my little love
 When Mum says paper