"ST. SUNNIVA,"

August 1 1893

My dear Helen.

Norway is out of sight & we are near Bonnie Scotland again I see the green hills & the high rocks along the shore & the white waves fringing them like pretty lace. We are near a queer old Scotch town called Aberdeen & soon we will land there, & then we will go to Leith near Edinburgh. We will get to Leith tonight & the long sail over the beautiful water will be done.
Everybody says we have had a lovely time in Norway

Good morning Midge. In a few minutes I will be going on the cars to Woodsworth's country in England.

Then to London &
Basle Switzerland
I fondly hope you & Wanda & mama & Grandma are well. I have not heard from you since leaving New York &
it seems a long time I suppose your letters are all in London at the

730 London Paris & American Bank limited, which is the best address Tell Mama to address

letters there. & I will have them forwarded wherever I may be
It is raining today but I have a good waterproof

There are a few more Vareadale & Romsdale
flowers & love to all I'll soon be home
My darlings please bless you good bye O.M.
