ASUOP Speaker of the Senate implored

The ASUOP Senate act last month by imposing the speaker of the Senate, Richard L. Eramo, following a period of discussion, which had begun earlier in the fall. The impeachment took place at a Senate meeting held on March 22. Ramirez was removed from office by a vote of 20 to 0, the House of Representatives and 18 votes, which had failed to fulfill her duties as the speaker.

People felt that she had not been a good liaison between the managers, UPB RAT and the schools," said All E. Wynn, the parliamentarian at the Senate. "The loss of communication had been severe. There were also complaints that she didn't hold office hours."

A statement, written by Wynn and Steven W. Drez, College of the Pacific associate senator, was presented to the Senate that past Monday regarding the impeachment. "The ASUOP Senate would like it to be known that the impeachment of the former speaker of the Senate was due to violations of the speaker's duties as described in the ASUOP constitution. The speaker specifically violated Article II, Section 3, Subsection 3, which states that the speaker is "Responsible for relations with the University community."

We feel that it was in the best interest of the ASUOP organization and the UOP student body to have removed the speaker from office. During this period of transition, we the Senate are hopeful that our recent actions will initiate a more productive line of communication between the UOP student body and the administration."

At the March 22 Senate meeting several senators asked their opinions. "I and many others have questioned her ability (Ramirez) to communicate with numerous individuals within the University community," Dean. "At times, the speaker's conduct and demeanor toward members of the Senate have been less than satisfactory."

"I believe that college reflects the real world," said Warr. "What do community do to their bosses, who don't do their job? They fire them. Senate will send a positive message to the University by impeaching Ramirez."

"I am sure that, when the speaker pro-tem, is now the senator, who was a second-year student, said she will still remain at the University as a class senator. Revised attempts have been made to contact Ramirez but she was unavailable for comment at this time.

"The impeachment was procedurally not perfect," said Wynn. "According to the Senate, in the process of establishing specific procedures for impeachment."
Black student groups thrive after riots

The year has not been easy for college students who support the acceptance of homosexuals. "The riots were a spark that initiated the immediate consciousness. They (the riots) said: 'This problem has not left us, it is only camouflaged," said Carter, who is a crime justice major.

Alliance membership has skyrocketed from 65 last April to 400 currently, and members are intensely interested in the political life of the university community, Carter reported.

The riot has not been easy for the campus. In November, 70 students staged a two-day sit-in and successfully demanded an African-American studies department.

"We fought for seven and a half years to get an African-American Studies Department," Carter added. "Atlanta is the heart of the civil rights struggle."

Breckenridge was ideal for skiing. Snowfall almost every night, but a lot of it melted during the day. Unfortunately, I do not plan to go back to Colorado, but I hope to go back to Breckenridge some day. The steady crunch, crunch, crunch of my steps made all the difference in the world. It was no longer just a hill I was climbing, but a mountain I was conquering. The wind during our visit to Breckenridge was ideal for skiing. The Colorado Rockies. No offense to anyone, but the plains are really flat and boring. But the mountains are very high, and even though we didn't have a car and couldn't drive anywhere, we were still able to see the beautiful view of the Colorado Rockies. It was really worth it!}

Softball shuts out #5 Long Beach State

Matt Neuenburg, Sports Editor

The Pacific Softball team did everything but take a vacation during its recent 11-game swing that culminated in a sweep of the ranked Long Beach State.

The Lady Tigers swept both games in Fullerton in Sunday's nonconference style, 8-0 and 4-3. The pitching was as strong as usual, and the bat batters found the ball as well.

Brandi Phillips earned the win in the first game as she threw a four-no hitter, struck out four and walked two, a sixth win of the year. The offense was as off. UCC had 12 hits in the first game.

Lisa McClelland scored two runs with Mena Nigera and Rene Fuller both had two's.

Pacific Softball enjoys the victory of the new Hall of Fame field.

4-ers could never recover from.

Softball also faced UC Santa Barbara last weekend at home. The team split with the Gauchos, losing the first game 7-4. UOP held a two-run lead for five innings until UCC exploded with seven runs in the top of the ninth.

Pacific go for revenge in the coming game through when, Les Lopez led up her eighth right of the season with a 1-0 victory.

Lopez pitched the entire nine innings and struck out four while only giving up four hits. Alison Smith started an excellent Perfect home for the winning run.

The Pacific Softball team is now 16-2 and 8-3 in the Big West. The Lady Tigers play this weekend in San Jose for the conference rivalryIgnatius.

Goodbye Joe- San Francisco left it's heart in Montana

Matt Neuenburg, Sports Editor

What would San Francisco sports reporters do if it was not for Joe Montana? The city doesn't seem to care about anything but the Giants. It may sound ludicrous to think that the San Francisco Giants have more loyal fans than the Golden State Warriors or the San Francisco 49ers. But that's the reality of the situation.

San Francisco doesn't care about the Giants. Cities like New York, Chicago and Boston have Won the World Series. They don't care about the Super Bowls. They just care about having a team that can win the World Series and bring the city a championship. It's the same for the Sixers in Philadelphia and the Flyers in Philadelphia. The city doesn't care about the Eagles, but when they win the Super Bowl, it's a big deal.

What does San Francisco care about? The Giants. The 49ers. The Warriors. The Golden State. The Eagles. San Francisco cares about the teams that can win the Super Bowl and the World Series. They care about the teams that can bring the city a championship.
