From William Reid ^{April} 1868

Dear John Muir

~~Last Sunday~~ I received your kind letter last Sunday and read it with pleasure and delight, and I am going to try to write to you if I can, but I have not any thing particular to write to you, you said that Spring was coming in there I must tell you it is coming in here to I hear the birds sing and whistle it is certainly very pleasant. it is music to the ear of man to hear the birds sing in the Spring after a long cold dreary winter. About your last question about folks who believe in the bible exhorting themselves more for their present life than their everlasting life. although they believe the bible. yet if the truths of that Book are not sent home to the heart with power by the Holy Ghost: and their hearts softened and prepared to receive these truths their belief is of little consequence it is said in the bible that Devils believe
