

1858-01-01

Letter from Alfred Bradley Brown to John Muir, ca. 1858

Alfred Bradley Brown

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Brown, Alfred Bradley, "Letter from Alfred Bradley Brown to John Muir, ca. 1858" (1858). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1041.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1041>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

219
 Well John I thought it was about time I was answering your letter. I have been so busy that I have not had much time to write. I thought you would get out of patience waiting. So I thought I would begin to press answers.
 I guess I wont write poetry this time. you see I ant so used to writing poetry. you see I fiked your letter first rate I should like very much if I could write as good a one myself I should like first rate to meet over to the Old school house and speak pieces and sing our Old pres onward song as we used to last winter.
 I wonder where our teacher has gone and if he now and then thinks how his scholars are

J. Knier

getting along and of the many times we used ^{to} have last winter and I wish we might meet him again in the Old school house and hear him call us to order again and hear some of his wonderful speeches. ask Dave how he liked that awful calf I dont know but I have wrote enough I guess it is time to halt I am shure I suppose this is not as good a letter as you expected but I will try and do better next time answer this as soon as you can. and excuse all mistakes.

From your friend

A. B. Brown