Campus Religious Conference Spotlights Noted Chicago Prof

"Get Out of Your Campus Ghetto" will be the theme of the Campus Conference on Religion, scheduled November 8 through 12. Mr. Kermit Eby, full professor of social sciences at the University of Chicago, will preside as guest speaker of the Conference.

College of Pacific instructors featured as dialogue speakers are: Dr. Alonzo Baker, political science and history professor; Miss Virginia Short, music professor; Dr. Alfred Kraus, associate professor of physics; and Dr. Samuel Meyer, academic vice-president. Mr. Reed Robins, local realtor, will also be a dialogue speaker. Mr. Gordon Zimmerman, assistant speech professor, will serve as dialogue moderator.

Each evening throughout the five day Conference, Mr. Eby will present his views on a selected topic, followed by one of the aforementioned Pacific instructors. This will last for approximately forty minutes, concluded by a twenty minute discussion period. Selected dialogue topics are politics, business, fine arts, science, and education.

Guest speaker, Kermit Eby, is well versed on all of the above topics. He taught in the elementary and secondary grades between 1921 and 1937, and helped to organize the first teachers' union at Ann Arbor Senior High School and Auto Workers throughout these years. In the six following years, he held the position of executive secretary of the Chicago Teachers' Union and, in 1942, visited Japanese-American Relocation Camps for the Church of the Brethren.

Between 1945 and 1948, Eby served as director of education and research for CIO. During these years, he also was a member of the Federal Advisory Committee for the United States Office of Education. 1947 brought Eby to the White House Conference on Rural Education where he served as a delegate, and, in 1948, he joined the University of Chicago faculty. Political and church organizations are among Eby's affiliations, and he has also published numerous articles and three books.

Pacific To Host Business Confab

"Today's Executive — Tomorrow's Business" will be the theme of the first Central California business conference, scheduled November 5, 6, and 7, on the Pacific campus.

A program of principal addresses and lectures by outstanding business and education leaders will provide the gist of a series of face-to-face discussion groups. The conference is planned for people at work in middle and top management assignments, for key supervisory personnel, and highly potential young executives involved in all management functions of business today.

Pacific students are welcome to attend and are encouraged to invite anyone who is interested in business.

Further information may be obtained at Dr. Beckwith's office in the Administration Building.

Government Rep To Interview Students

Seniors and graduate students interested in future employment in accounting, employment management, personnel and fiscal management, research, and teaching will have the opportunity of a personal interview with a California State Government representative on November 4.

Campus discussions will provide opportunity to learn about positions which will be opening in these fields and employment procedures for state work when job offers are made.

All interested students should contact the placement office. Literature is also available so that each can prepare for his interview.

SALEM WITCHCRAFT STORY ENTHRALLS COP AUDIENCE

"The Crucible," which found success on Broadway in years past, found success on the Pacific Theatre stage last weekend. This exciting drama about the Puritan purge of witchcraft in old Salem is a combination of historical play and a timely parable about certain immediate parallel issues in our contemporary society.

The story tells of how small lies build and build until a whole town is aroused and men and women are sent to the gallows for being possessed of the Devil. The story focuses upon a young farmer, his powerful Mr. Wilbur easily climbed to the top rung on the ladder of quality. Although the casting of Mr. Wilbur in his particular part was wise, we question the use of him in the play as a whole because of the age-illusion problem. As in all college productions, people of college age are required to portray characters of all ages. The Pacific Players fared pretty well with this problem until Mr. Wilbur, who played a person of his own age, emerged dynamically on stage to shatter the illusion. From then on, the "older" members of the cast struggled to maintain their identity as older people.

Among suggestions for improvement, we might recommend that at least half the cast speak a little louder. Everyone could take a lesson in diction from Mr. Wilbur. A few players would do well to read through the book once more to improve their interpretation.

Filling the major roles are Rod Elin as John Proctor, Pat Cornell as Abigail Williams, Judy Henderson as Elizabeth Proctor, Dick Harrison as Reverend Hale, Kathy Morrison as Mary Warren, and wife, and a young servant-girl who maliciously causes the wife's arrest for witchcraft. The farmer brings the girl to court to admit the lie, and here in this trial scene is the big moment. It is a thrilling, and terrifying scene as it depicts the monstrous course of bigotry and deceit.

Without any other merits, this play could attract a large audience solely because it was written by Marilyn Monroe's husband, Arthur Miller, author of "Death of a Salesman" and "All My Sons." Truly, Arthur Miller is one of America's most outstanding contemporary playwrights.

This particular production of "The Crucible" can be considered good because of the fact that it is a college production. But it seemed to lack that certain "spark" or "feeling" that would be demanded on Broadway. This is evidenced in the fact that the audience found humor in some scenes that were supposed to be terrifying.

As could be expected, the quality of the acting varied from excellent to poor. Generally, the acting would rate a strong "good" on the "excellent-good-fair-poor" scale. The high point of the evening was the appearance of Franklin Wilbur, a former Pacific Theatre star of the past, who played Deputy-Governor Dan-

ROD ELIN

Dick Williams as Reverend Parris. The remainder of the cast of 21 consists of Fred Vallier, Nyla Marchese, Jack Owen, Suzanne Salbach, Anne Whiston, Roy Ryan, Gail Manning, Ray Rustigian, Ellie Niles, Linda Huffman, Roger McManus, Judy Goldeen, James Gardner, and Burke Coveny.

"The Crucible," directed by DeMarcus Brown, will be staged to-night and tomorrow night in the College of the Pacific Conservatory with curtain time at 8:30. Phone HOWard 2-8676 for reservations.

"The Crucible" is an exciting, thought-provoking, and entertaining drama worthy of your patronage.—Walt Christophersen

COP TO BE UNIVERSITY

College of the Pacific's trustees Tuesday took steps to change the school's name back to its original University of the Pacific and to create a new liberal arts college emphasizing individual study.

The present liberal arts college will retain its own name in the new university setup. The name change will not become effective for a year or two, said Dr. Robert Burns, COP president.

The trustees also decided to seek acquisition of Stockton College's 46-acre campus to house the new liberal arts college and to provide for future expansion.

COP actually has been operating as a university for some years, with its schools of education, engineering, music and pharmacy.

First classes in the new liberal arts college, which will be based on the strong points of England's Oxford University system, are expected to be held in September 1961, after completion of a new dormitory system on the present Baxter Stadium site.

CRANE-FOURTH YELL LEADER; MANY FALL RALLYS SCHEDULED

Bob Crane, COP junior, was selected fourth yell leader during tryouts which were held on October 22, according to Del Alberti, Rally Commissioner.

Crane, a member of Rho Lambda Phi, will fill the vacancy left by Stan Koenigsberger who is recovering from a serious illness. Tryouts were open to all freshmen, sophomore, and junior men students.

A series of rallies are scheduled for the remainder of the semester. On Thursday, November 5, a "Follow The Band" rally will be held at 7 p.m. with the band picking up campus living groups at 6:45 p.m.

Thursday, November 12, will find Pacificites attending a big theatre rally at the Fox Ritz Theatre. A first rate feature film will be shown, as well as colored slides of COP's Homecoming half-time show. The price for this rally is 90 cents with a student body card. Women students will be given extended hours according to the Deans' office. Show time is slated for 7:30 p.m.

The traditional San Jose-COP exchange rally will be held on Thursday, November 19 at 7 p.m., in the Pacific Conservatory.

EDITORIAL

At a recent session of the Legislature of the State of California a strict ban on hazing was enacted. A copy of the statute was sent to all California colleges and universities. The institutions, in turn, sent copies of the statute to all fraternities and sororities on their campuses.

The recognition of the significance of this new law came as a result of the recent unfortunate death of a young student at a major university in Southern California. The purpose of this law is to avoid a recurrence of such a tragedy at all costs.

The statute contains a broad definition of hazing and provides for severe penalties, both against the individuals participating in the acts and the institution knowingly permitting any of the acts constituting hazing.

As described in the statute, hazing is any act which "causes, or is likely to cause bodily danger of physical harm" and "any act that injures, degrades, or disgraces, or tends to injure, degrade or disgrace any fellow student."

The College of the Pacific Inter-Fraternity Council has voted unanimously to comply with this law with the result that each fraternity will voluntarily discontinue some of their traditional initiation practices. Past hazing practices which have been abolished are:

1. "Paddling" or "swatting."
2. Wearing of uniforms and the restriction of personal cleanliness.
3. Late hours and other acts which tend to wear down physical endurance.
4. The eating of unpalatable foods.

In place of old hazing practices, fraternity pledges will be engaged in constructive projects which will benefit the fraternity, the college, and the community. In addition, pledges will be encouraged to further themselves scholastically during the pledging period by being given regulated study hours.

The Inter-Fraternity Council realizes the importance of upholding the hazing law and will make every attempt to comply with this law. In many cases tradition blocks progress. But with social adjustment and development in mind, the IFC recognizes this law as a forward step for the betterment of the fraternities and their members.—W. C.

REV. MOON

World Traveler To Be Next Chapel Speaker

Reverend Robert W. Moon, eminent theologian, scholar, and world traveler, will present "Christians and American Democracy" during Chapel services, Tuesday, November 3 at 11:00 a.m.

A graduate of the University of California, Reverend Moon's travels with the San Francisco State College European Seminar have taken him through thirteen European countries and behind the iron curtain. Recently he spent two months in a rural Japanese village as a short-term missionary.

Talk-back sessions will be held at noon in the Women's Residence Hall, and at 4:00 p.m. at Anderson "Y." Students and faculty are invited to participate. Reverend Moon's presentation will be the fourth in a series entitled "Christians and American Messages."

Edwina Parsons, junior education major and Campus Methodist Student Movement president, will lead the worship service.

North Africa Is Topic In 'Y' Program

Anderson "Y's" Social Study and Action Commission will present Madame Magda Trocme, speaking on the revolution in North Africa, on November 2.

Madame Trocme, a co-secretary of the International Fellowship of Reconciliation, for Continental Europe, has an extremely interesting background. For some years she was a French social worker, and, recently, she and her husband have worked with Christians and Moslems in Algiers. The "Y" meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday evening.

FROM WHERE I SIT . . .

By MEL SLOCUM

How important is the past? I ask this because my few words here deal with a certain phase of the past—namely Homecoming. Homecoming 1959 was very successful but out of it came many problems and questions of which the majority of the students know very little.

One problem was that of the judging of the Homecoming Parade. There were four judges giving a maximum of 5 points under each of the following categories: Originality, Theme, Design, General Appearance, Craftsmanship, Decorative Quality and Good Taste. There was a possible 140 points. Here, printed for the first time, are the results:

MEN'S DIVISION		WOMEN'S DIVISION
Alpha Kappa Lambda	120	Delta Delta Delta	111
Delta Upsilon	119	Zeta Phi	108
Rho Lambda Phi	115	Kappa Alpha Theta	99
Alpha Kappa Phi	110	Women's Residence Hall	92
South Hall	101	Delta Gamma	91
Phi Delta Chi	99
North Hall	86

As you may well observe, the judging was so close in some cases that a quick glance by one judge at a cute female in the crowd, could suddenly change his mood and swing the whole affair into the hands of another living group. This may seem a bit far-fetched, however, this was not the only problem. On two of the four ballots West Hall received more votes than half of the other entries. Now this is all well and good, friendly competition, etc., until you recall that West Hall had no float.

In the field of Comic Entries, two judges cast their ballots for 2 entries, one for all 5 entries and one didn't cast a ballot for any entries (either he had no sense of humor or was again looking into the crowd).

I'm not disputing the fact that the winning living groups certainly deserved the trophies they received, but it does appear that the system of judging could use a little revamping. A good theme for some float might have been "There'll Be Some Changes Made."

The situation that occurred this year was, by no means the fault of those who planned the various aspects of Homecoming. This is a set policy and has been used year after year. It is only natural that we change these policies with time. Any suggestions?

While still on the subject of Homecoming, there were a couple of questions that were discussed at the last Senate Meeting. No. 1—The possibility of two living groups going together and working on one float. No. 2—Cutting House Decorations from Homecoming and possibly having them during Parents' Day or Mardi Gras. The Senate has no authority or intentions of passing any action on these points, but felt there was interest and a need to discuss them.

In lieu of all these issues I have pointed out, I feel that the entire weekend was one of the best handled and smoothest run homecomings that COP has seen in some time.

So . . . At this, let us leave the past and use it only as a stepping stone to a better future.

WOMAN OF THE WEEK

Zeta Phi has selected Joan Elizabeth Munn to be their Woman of this Week. Joan is a tiny energetic Senior from Corona, California, where she has lived her whole life except for a short time during the war when she lived in Pittsburgh.

Two years ago this azure-eyed, spider-banged brunette could be found bustling about the Pomona College campus, where she majored in Math. She decided to come to Pacific when she changed her major to Elementary Education. Joan wants to teach the fifth grade because of summer camping experiences with the boisterous ten year olds.

Classical and "Broadway" popular music, bowling, swimming, (Junior Lifesaving), sewing, all colors just as long as they are blue, Spanish and Chinese foods, and especially beachcombing at Balboa are a few of the loves of Joan. She stated that her only "mentionable" pet peeve is Rock 'n Roll sounds.

Joan is a member of C.S.T.A. on campus and now holds the honorable post of assistant treasurer of Zeta Phi.

BREAKS OF GAME BEAT THE TIGERS 21-14 AT CINCINNATI

One foot stood between defeat and possible victory last Saturday as the Bengal Tigers ran out of time after a great comeback. Cincinnati handed the Tigers their fourth loss of the season with a 21-14 victory.

Pacific first reached the scoring column as ever dangerous Dick Bass broke loose for a 39-yard ramble to pay dirt early in the 2nd half.

Cincinnati dominated the game during the first half. Their first two touchdowns were the direct results of Pacific fumbles on their own 26 and 11 yard lines. Two short drives and the Bearcats were out in front, two TD's to nothing.

The Bearcats scored once more to go out in front with the 21 point lead that the Tigers couldn't quite overcome. Cincinnati made its best showing of the afternoon with a long drive all the way on the ground for their final scoring.

Pacific made a different story of the game in the second half. After Bass' 39 yard romp, the Bengals showed new life. A little later, the second most feared Tiger runner, Henry Wallace, dove across the goal line for the final Pacific scoring.

Gatiss worked hard for the tying touchdown, but due to confusion on the referee's part, the Bengals ran out of time on the Bearcat one foot line after a long drive in the closing seconds.

And so the Tigers went down to their fourth loss of the season with only one win. A great second half showing wasn't quite enough to overcome Cincinnati's first half. The weather didn't aid the Tigers either. Used to sunny California, the men from Pacific handed the Bearcats two TD's early in the game due to fumbles. A 40 degree rain was falling there.

Better luck this weekend!

San Jose At Pacific Pool

Hopefully looking forward to an upset victory, the College of the Pacific water polo team tangles with the San Jose State Spartans this Thursday, November 3, three o'clock at the Pacific pool.

Thus far in the season the Tigers have a perfect record in league play, no wins and four losses. In overall play they are 1-5.

The most recent games were a loss against the Olympic club, 33-9; a loss to the Athens Club, 15-3; and a loss to the Alumni, 12-8.

Leading scorer for the Tigers is freshman forward Pete Hunt with 12 goals in five games.

PACIFIC WEEKLY Sports

BENGALS WIN

The Tigers put the clamps on a highly-touted Marquette passing attack to march to a 22-13 win before 20,800 Homecoming fans in Memorial Stadium, Oct. 10th.

It was the first victory of the season for the Bengals. Marquette dropped its fifth straight game.

While the Tigers stifled Warrior Quarterback Pete Hall's throwing, Marquette almost upset the Pacific apple cart by coming up with a crunching ground game and driving to a quick 6-0 lead.

With Frank Mestnik and Jim Webster picking up consistent gains behind a gigantic forward wall, Marquette moved 67 yards in 15 plays and went ahead when the 204-pound Mestnik bulled over from the Tiger three. Webster made it 7-0 with a perfect conversion kick.

The Tigers came bouncing back, however, as Dick Bass returned the ensuing kick-off 51 yards to the Warrior 44-yard line. Hank Wallace capped the march with a one yard scoring plunge, and after the conversion failed Pacific trailed, 7-6.

A recovered fumble on the Marquette 35 set up the second COP six-pointer in the second quarter. After a pass from Bob Gatiss to Joy Gritts ate up 22 yards, Bass scored by twisting and bouncing five yards to paydirt. This time the two-point conversion was good with Gatiss hitting Herm Urenda.

Bass kept his finger in the scoring pudding in the fourth period when he set up the final Tiger TD by tossing a 20-yard pass to Gritts, who made a great catch and slipped to the Warrior

TIGERS MEET RAINBOWS MYERS HOPES FOR SECOND WIN

Hawaiian music, leis, and the friendly greeting of "Aloha," will be the welcome received by the College of the Pacific football team when they step off the plane in the sunny islands of Hawaii. Although the boys will most certainly enjoy themselves during their stay, the main business of the Tigers is to win the football game tonight against the University of Hawaii.

Pacific should be fairly confident concerning the outcome of this game since the Rainbow teams are rarely up to the standards of the mainland. All the good players in the Islands are recruited by teams across the Ocean.

three before he was knocked out of bounds.

Wallace blasted into the end zone on the next play, and Gatiss hit Ola Murchison with a pass on the conversion for a 22-7 lead.

Marquette scored in the final minutes when Joe Schulte, a sophomore quarterback, capped an aerial drive with a six-yard touchdown toss to George Andrie.

Both teams have had little success this year. As everyone knows, the Tigers are in the midst of a very mediocre season with only one win in five games. The men from Hawaii have yet to know the joy of being victorious.

The power and depth of the Orange and Black should be too much for the Rainbows. In fact this could be the game when Pacific's once vaunted offense finally will get the chance to show its ability against a much weaker team than Pacific has played this season.

With an easy win over Hawaii, perhaps the Tigers may start a win streak which could continue to the end of the season.

FROSH WIN 14-6 LOSE, 50-16

College of the Pacific's freshman football squad lost to the California frosh 50-16 last Saturday in Berkeley. Cal took advantage of the 85 degree heat and forty-four players to overpower COP's 17 men.

The Tiger Cubs, however, led 8-6 at halftime but then Cal repeatedly switched their four units in the second half to score 22 points in each of the last two quarters.

Jack Sparrow threw the ball 37 times for COP, connecting on 15 aerials for 238 yards, including a 60 yard touchdown heave to end Doug Fell. Fell snagged 10 of Sparrow's tosses.

Sparrow scored the other touchdown on a one-yard plunge in the first quarter. The conversions were added by Aaron Youngblood and Duane Isetti on passes from Sparrow.

On October 17 the Tiger Cubs were victorious over Deuel Vocational by a 14-6 score.

This game was a defensive battle rather than an offensive game. The TD's were scored by Fell on a long Sparrow heave, and Duane Isetti.

The Tiger Cubs draw a bye in their schedule this week but next week they are pitted against tough Cabrillo Junior College.
