Mr. Murr:

City Wis.
 March 19/63.

Dear Sir: Your letter has been received, but a few days ago and I was sorry to hear that you had such a bad time at me.
 About three weeks after I was in Madison, last time I was taken sick with the malarial fever, and not been well since. I can now walk around and intend to resume my school again Monday next.

For this reason I have not been able to fulfill my promises.
I do not now know whether if you are in Madison or not.
I shall be able to send you what I owe you in about two weeks. Write again that I may know where you are. I suppose you have vacation now.

Truly, C. F. Field

Mr. Muir,

Dear Sir:

Your letter has been received but a few days ago, and I was sorry to hear that you had such a bad opinion of me. About three weeks after I was in Madison the last time I was taken sick with the typhoid fever, and have not been well since. I can now walk around and intend to assume my school again on Monday next. For this reason I have not been able to fulfill my promises. I do not now know whether you are in Madison or not. I shall be able to send you what I owe you in about two weeks. Write again that I may know where you are. I suppose you have vacation now.

Truly,
