Portage June 9

Dear John, I have just received your letter and hasten to answer. I am well, and all the folks except Maggie she has had a hard time of it. I suppose you heard that she had got cold and was down sick; very sick too.

When do you intend to begin practicing medicine? You are much needed. If you know how to cure the prairie itch I wish you would prescribe for me, for I have it bad (the prairie itch) and have tried Sulphur and Cream of Tartar and itch ointment and I am not cured yet. Give me a receipt instantly if you please
