Madison, Wisconsin,
June 24th 1863.
Dear Dr. Boise.

Allow me to introduce to you, the name, Mr. John Mein, a most estimable young gentleman, who has been attending the State University & has, & expects to commence study in Ann Arbor next term. You will find in him the greatest modesty joined with high moral & religious excellence. He has also marked mechanical genius. I trust his time of study in your University may be pleasant & profitable. My family join me in regards to you & yours Fraternally yours
J. C. Johnson.
