

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1866-07-02

Letter from Ann G. Muir to Daniel H. Muir, 1866 Jul 2

Ann G. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann G., "Letter from Ann G. Muir to Daniel H. Muir, 1866 Jul 2" (1866). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1197.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1197>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

July 2^d 1866

Dear Daniel

I begin to think you are very long in answering my last letter so I write again. I want to know how you are getting along the path of life - are you still in the same shop - have you decided to come west this summer you know I am always glad to have you come - I hope you are as much interested about religious matters as before - as spiritual things are of so much greater importance than temporal concerns are - We did not forget your birthday last Friday hoping you will yet see many happy returns of it.

I enclose this scribble as a birth day present — Mary has not got home yet but she is much better, I was glad of it. a few days ago we went to visit ^{swank} at her new home and was much pleased with the appearance of the farm I think it is a very pleasant place — and only about 8 miles from Postage they have a large fine orchard with the appearance of plenty fruit of different kinds they have a good school and a public road to it — we are all well. The girls still attend school — now Daniel I hope you will write when you receive this and let us know when you have a letter from John from your ever affectionate Mother