My Dear Brother Daniel

When I receive your letter I had a great mind to give you a long account of all my friends and acquaintance in this part of the country as a return for your kindness but as we are in the middle of harvest and I the master of all work I sincerely hope you will excuse me at this time. I may gather all the names and stems for another time who knows. I hope that you are enjoying your self very much with Prof. Ekin & Julia. Wth Love, Prof. Lechester, and all the rest of the friends you mention also that the mole is bluffed just right and your bird wings to perfection. I have not had a chance to see Mother to ask her whether you have had the whooping cough as you will have to take it it is not just as you think best We have had an extremely pleasant visit with John finished all too soon he is in portage just now visiting with with Maggie & David. I expect him one more night here before he leaves.

 When do you expect to give us the pleasure of a visit when you do come make arrangements to stay a long time. Anna was anxious to write a letter to someone. She said she had never written to Uncle Dan so she would begin at once it would please her very much to hear from you, send her a few lines if you have time when you make up your mind to give me another screed about all your Dick's & Henry's. As John thinks he may probably see you on his way home I must not begin to give you any news about the home folks trusting to hear from you soon I am as ever yours affectionately Sam
