Sept 28th 1869.

Dear John Muir.

I make one more half desperate attempt to recover you,
'in time'; having gone to home keeping and having a place to which to welcome & in which keep you - You will report yourself accordingly at Oakland Webster St. near corner of 11th "Tarleton's house". I am awfully homesick, had just as soon die & go to the woods as not - but the Dr & the boys might miss me & I won't.

Besides I want to see you again - I have room for all your plants - Prof Butler has been here & gone to Sand wich Islands - and I am as ever

Your friend
Leaman Carr
