Inland Park, 2nd April 18th 1870

Dear Mr ^{Merrill} ~~Merrill~~ wrote a drama called the "Hoosier Boys." Lacey Hough is dead, killed of the Scarlet Fever on the 24th March at San Francisco, Cal.
Have you seen Uncle Hough yet?
we wish that you would come here. because we want to see you very bad. why don't you send that horse? One time our horse bit me so that I could not move. it bit about ten minutes. One time at school Miss King told me that I could not write so very well because I had only been ^{there} four weeks when I had been there with her.
Some of the boys have such funny names such as Woody Downey ^{and} Eliza Horsesh. I have not any more to say so I will not say anything more

Mamma, Merrill and Janet send their love to you.

Yours affectionate little friend

Charles W. Moore.

P. S. Her name is the sister.

Good bye

Charles.
