Dear Brother Dan

I have heard from John Sletty & he sent me a little money & he wrote that if you were still hard up to give you some of it

We are all well Joanna is boarding with us & going to school Anna is at home We have got in our fall shote a big one too.

Did you join that lodge?
How are you getting along in medicine are you earning much? How is your intended? Give her my respects & tell her I'll be the kindest brother in law she ever had. Trade has not Started yet but we expect to do some business this fall you know. Mary is in Madison. It was hard to-day. There is very little sickness here at present. Hoping to hear favorably from you soon.

I am as ever
Your Affectionate
Bro David

As dear sister
