so what will come of all this. I do not know but will write to you when any thing ^a decisive kind transpires

The girls
join me in sending much love to you and to Emma and the babies.
hoping you will write soon I conclude remaining your affectionate Mother

April
Portage 18th 1873

Dear Dada

I received your welcome letter - and was gratified to know that you were again all well - We are all well

I thank you for the interest you take in affairs here - and also for the advice you give but I wish you had written on the subject sooner -

Your father has not yet decided where he will go -
but lately has talked and read a great deal about California. He thinks that is the Goshen of the United States but where he will go I do not know - he is much dissatisfied with our present home he is very busy just now in making a garden and straightening up things generally -

5) Last week we had a letter from John and he seems very happy and contented

You will be surprised to know that Richard Hill is again sold. John C. has sold ~~it~~ to the Catholic ^{people} and William McLean from some years ago

Daniel Gallows has bought a handsome 200 Dollar Bergan for Anne - and brings her to Portugal once a week for her music lesson.

I am glad to hear that you will teach in the 2^d school this summer. She has been teaching there for some time - I am at home this summer.

The girls seem to like the idea of going to California and will go with their father if he will take them but they decided that they would not go with him to England.
