so what will come of all this. I do not know but will write to you
when any thing of a decisive kind transpires

The girls
join me in sending
much love to you and to Emma and the babies
hoping you will write
soon I conclude
remaining your affectionate
Mother

Dear Dada

I received your welcome letter - and was gratified to know that you were again all well - We are all well

I thank you for the interest you take in affairs here - and also for the advice you give but I wish you had written on the subject
sooner -

Your father
has not yet decided where he will go -
but lately has talked
