Tigers To Meet Navy Air Devils

St. Mary's to Bring Marching Unit Of 40 Cadets and Negro Band

Last Friday night the Tigers trounced the Army Air Corps. Tomorrow night they hope to give the same treatment to the Naval Air Corps from St. Mary's Preflight.

BAND AND UNIT

Besides an all-star team, St. Mary's is bringing a 40-piece negro band and a rifle unit of forty cadets. The band and unit will be featured both in pre-game ceremonies and in the half-time activities. St. Mary's is to provide all the half-time entertainment tomorrow night.

COLOR GUARD

As part of the pre-game ceremonies there will be a color guard made up of the contingent of naval cadets as well as the Marine Detachment on campus. This is all under the direction of Lt. William A. Seel, Commanding Officer of the Marine Detachment. The ceremonies will begin at 7:40 p. m., and all students are asked to be in the rooting section by that time, so that the ceremonies may begin on time.

DANCE AFTER GAME

After the game there is to be a dance in the Pacific Gym. The cadets from the marching unit as well as all cadet members of the football team from St. Mary's will be the guests of the Pacific Student Association at this dance. Admission will be by PSA card (Continued on page 4)

Do Your Over-Seas Christmas Shopping Now—Deadline Soon

Do your Christmas shopping early or you'll MISS the boat . . . !

That was the essence of a reminder last week aimed at all military personnel and citizens in the eight Western states who contemplate sending Yule parcels to relatives and friends in overseas Theaters of Operations.

To assure timely delivery of gifts they must be mailed between now and October 15.

The reminder was issued at the Fort Douglas, Utah, headquarters of Major General William E. Shedd, Commanding General of the Ninth Service Command, on behalf of the Army Postal Service, which stressed the following provisions for overseas mailing:

1. Packages length and girth should not be more than thirty-six inches nor weigh more than five pounds when wrapped.
2. Wrap parcels securely in strong container and plainly mark "CHRISTMAS GIFT PARCEL."
3. Address properly to avoid delay in delivery.

News in Review

By ART CAFAGNI

Since the Quebec conference, much thought has been given to the organization and routes of the final allied drive against Japan. So this week, this column turns to predictions of the Pacific-Asian war.

At present there are three separate commands for the war against Japan: Mountbatten's China-India-Burma; MacArthur's Southwest Pacific; and Nimitz' Pacific Ocean Areas.

MOUNTBATTENS

Of the three, the CIB theater has been the least spectacular of all. When this command was set up thirteen months ago, much hope was held for the removal of the Japs from Burma, but after a short offensive, this effort stopped and a stalemate set in until last June when the Japs launched the near-successful invasion of India, stopped just short of its goal. Now, Stillwell is conducting a small scale offensive in north Burma, and more recently the British 14th army has opened up on the long inactive Arakan front. Probably, when victory in Europe can release more of the Royal Navy and Air Force, a large scale offensive will begin here. This drive will be aimed at driving the Japs from Burma, and from Siam. From here, it could go either of two ways or both, that is either across Indo-China to the S. China Sea and a junction with MacArthur, or south to the Malay-Sumatra area. In either case, it would be a serious threat to the Japanese flank in south China. Probably in conjunction with this, an Airborne army like the one now in Holland will be used to hamper Jap supply lines. Finally this drive could be aimed at Canton and Hong-Kong supported by MacArthur.

MACARTHUR'S

The first goal is the recapture of the Philippines, either for strategic or ego building reasons. After that, MacArthur could jump either to Formosa, Indo-China of the south Chinese coast, and with troops from the CIB theater, drive up to Shanghai and Chosen. However, for this to succeed, Japan must be on her last legs, because from here constant air attacks can be thrown at the home islands. MacArthur's drives would probably be supported by the U. S. Navy under Nimitz (Continued on page 4)

Big PSA Dance Theme Will Be "Pig Skin Prom"

Bids Will Go On Sale Monday, PSA Office

"Pigskin Prom" is to be the name of the dance sponsored by the Pacific Student Association, featuring Anson Weeks and his orchestra. It will be held in the Pacific Gym, and dancing will be from 9-1.

COMMITTEE HEADS

"General Chairman of the dance is Elaine Peterson, and her committee chairmen are as follows: Decorations Committee — Ava June Colliver and Rose Alexander; Publicity—Helen Ward; Bids—Virginia Eilert; and Patrons — Joan Schroebel. The committee members have not as yet been chosen, but will be announced as soon as they are.

PRICE LOWERED

The price of admission has been lowered from $2.50 per couple to $1.65 per couple. This price includes all federal and city taxes. Bids will go on sale next Monday, September 25th at the PSA Office. The office will be open every day in the week for the convenience of all students. Consult the schedule on the door for the exact office hours.

CARDS NOT NECESSARY

Although a PSA card per couple will be necessary to gain admittance to the dance, it will not be necessary for students to present cards at the time of purchasing the bids.

ALUMNI INVITED

At the Executive Committee meeting on last Tuesday, it was decided to admit to the dance accredited alumni of Pacific and Stockton Junior College and also former students of both institutions. Former students would include those students who have attended either Stockton Junior College or College of Pacific previously (Continued on page 4)

Watermelon Feed Tonight at 7:00

Rally Will Be Held Following Feast in the Outdoor Theatre

Tonight at 7 p. m. the entire student body and faculty is invited to a watermelon feed and rally, sponsored by the A.W.S. to be held on the lawn between the Cub House and the Outdoor theatre.

According to Jean Davis, chairman of the event, the women students are to wear slacks and jeans. Ice-cold watermelons will be plentiful and free.

RALLY

Immediately following the big get-together and feed, a pep rally for the Pacific-St. Mary's football game will be held in the outdoor theatre, under the direction of Don Segner and his rally committee. Band music will add to the gaiety of the occasion.

COMMITTEE

Aiding Jean in preparations for this event are the following committees: Arrangements, to collect knives, tables, and garbage cans, Mary Louise Dagg, chairman, Taye Bramwell, Betty Ferrari, Norma Sprague and Jean Cruickshank; Invitations, to the faculty members, Marilyn Berger, chairman, Elaine Wiefel, Virginia Cheney, Marion Phillips, and Barbara Roth; Publicity, Earlene Waters, chairman, Elaine Peterson, Lena Bacigalupi, and Jeannette Morrison; Serving, Marie Arbios, chairman, Kaye Malmquist, Joyce Hughes, Beverly Byrnes, Bea Belander, and Helen Ward; Clean-up, Barbara Burns, chairman, Vanadeane Carroll, Peggy Roth, Norgis Breeden, Pat Rodegertz, Penny Kurtzweil, Jean Arnold, and Doris Forsland.

Red Cross Offers Pointers On Gifts For GI's Abroad

What to pack in Christmas boxes for shipment to service men and women in foreign countries is suggested in a list drawn up by Red Cross workers who have been overseas with troops and who have learned what is most useful and most welcome.

Books head the list of "best buys" in Christmas gifts, preferably pocket editions. Mysteries and adventure stories are most popular. A windproof cigarette lighter would be a good choice. Red Cross workers advise, since this item often is lost or becomes worn out.

SLIPPERS

Durable shower slippers—canvas is suggested—are highly useful. Writing portfolios and fountain pen, both of a simple type, would be welcome. A pocket size folder enclosing one or more snapshots of the family is also (Continued on page 4)

Cmdr. Nelson Tells Students About Tarawa

Last Thursday's assembly was changed from the regular time of 12:55 to 10:45 in order to fit the schedule of the speaker of the program, Cmdr. Donald Nelson, USN. Glenn Everman, area representative of the California War Chest for Allief Relief, USO's, etc., introduced the speaker as a surgeon attached to the Second Marine Division during their beachhead on Tarawa.

The landing of the Second, Sixth and Eighth Regiments of the Second Division took place November 20 at 8:30 under heavy bombardment from the enemy ashore. "Troops were not stuck on the coral reef as has been said, since amphibious tractors were used to shuttle the troops ashore", said Cmdr. Nelson in refutation to the report that the heavy list of casualties was caused by poor manipulation of the landing craft. The first day on the atoll resulted in a more or less insecure beachhead for the Leathernecks with a few light tanks used to blast concrete pill-boxes.

COMMUNICATORS

According to the speaker, the communicators deserve a great deal of credit for a fine job, and in conjunction he told of an incident in which an entire regiment was held in order by one TBY (walkie-talkie) for two days. The operator of the set was awarded the Navy Cross for distinguished service.

"The second wave met a terrific cross-fire of machine-guns, 'but like true Marines,' related Cmdr. Nelson, 'their buddies ashore were in trouble and they wouldn't let them down.' 'How these boys came through the fire I'll never know.'"

FIRST NIGHT

During the first night it was impossible to get wounded off the island but they were well taken care of due to the supply of plasma, sulphanilamide and bandages that was on hand.

Though the loss of life in securing the tiny island of Tarawa was terrific, it served to cut down the casualties in the battles that have followed. Once more the Marines had written a glorious page in their book of heroic deeds.

This week end is really going to be colorful. First you can get red and black from the watermelons; then go sit on the orange seats; get a little red coloring on your face after the game, and wake up in the morning feeling in the pink (or blue). The main thing to do is "Back the Attack" against St. Mary's preflight.

CADAVER HALL

The scene is the Reichschancellery in Berlin; Hitler and all his generals are grouped around a table planning strategy, when suddenly in crashes the allied armies, and Hitler is captured. As payment for his war crimes, the allies decided to torture Hitler with the worst treatment possible. They thought for a long time, and finally decided; Hitler was then called up to get his punishment. An allied officer handed him a piece of paper, and with a fiendish grin, pointed to the paper and said "Read!" Adolf took one look at the paper and screamed that he would never read it. He fell to the floor and began chewing his old rug, all the time pleading that he would not have to read that paper, but no use, he was forced to read it. Trembling, Hitler began to look at it, but he dropped it again. He was forced to pick it up, and while Eisenhower and Montgomery steadied his hand and while Stalin poured him vodka Adolf read. He saw the words, and turned, but he read on. What were those words that made Adolf do that. Well, those words were enough to make anyone chew a rug, for if you could find them between the "hmmmmms and the ????" you would see that they formed the only thing that Frank Buck never brought back alive. That's right, it's the column written by our guest columnist this week, that timely article, "SPECIFIC MANEUVERS," and here it is: : : Take it away!

CLUB SPECIFIC

Last week, we here at "Club Specific" noticed that another columnist in the paper said that we used too many "hmmmm," so we, clever columnists that we are, have decided on a real maneuver—instead of using hmmmm, we will use TUT TUT, and this way prove his criticism faulty. But on with the maneuvers?????

NEWS

Club Specific News: Esposito was seen entering the club with a new playmate today. From all appearances, he seemed to have had a good time. Tell me though Espo, doesn't that second head get in your way???? Oh, you say she was a Stockton girl????

tut tut!!!! (If I had more space, I would add some hmms and ?????, but we don't want to be like Pacific Maneuvers.

BOX OF CANDY

Today the customary and traditional box of chocolates was passed followed by a bottle with the inscription "two tablespoons after every meal." It was passed from room to room by those two, Toodles and Bongo. How long, and how many, kids?????

IN CONCLUSION

And in concluding, may we mention our candidates for persons of the week. Our boy, Marlowe, called chapter three in Freud by those who know him; and our female, any girl who does not write Pacific Maneuvers.

Summer is drawing to a close at last. 0600 gets darker and colder, calisthenics fewer and farther between, which isn't hard to take. Running's less work, somehow. Blues should make their appearance shortly, thank goodness—we'll be able to put the scrub-board in storage for a while. Yep, every season has its good points.

Tigers Trounce Skymasters

Muentner, Easton, Litchman Score Four Touchdowns for Pacific

The Pacific Tigers tasted victory for the first time this season when they smashed their way to a 25-0 win over the Fairfield Skymasters in Baxter Bowl last Friday night. The 7000 fans who attended got a glimpse of Coach Stag's reserves in action as the first string rode the bench most of the night.

MUENTER SCORES

The first touchdown was made in the first quarter. Mal Sinclair, the left end, partially blocked a Fairfield kick on the three yard line. Cooke caught the ball on the nineteen, and was stopped on the fifteen. A series of runs by Cooke and Muentner brought the ball to the three yard line. Muentner then smashed his way to the first six points of the ball game. Bill Milhaupt kicked the only extra point of the game, making the score 7-0.

PACIFIC THREATENS

Several times during the second quarter, the Tigers threatened to score on the visitors. A pass from Cooke to Turner was completed for a touchdown but was called back on a penalty. Another scoring threat ended on the four yard line when Cooke's pass to Hardin was knocked down, Skymaster taking the ball on downs. The half ended with the ball in Pacific's possession on the five yard line.

EASTON SCORES

Late in the third quarter, Cooke's kick hit Bob Lester and was promptly recovered by Medlin giving Pacific the ball on Skymaster's 23. Litchman and Easton carried the ball to the one yard line, from which point Easton plunged off guard for the score. Milhaupt's kick went wide making the score 13-0.

SIXTY YARD DRIVE

The last quarter found Pacific with the ball on their forty yard line. Easton carried the ball to the 47, and on the next play Litchman's pass to Pohl was completed on the 36 yard line. Easton on a series of plunges carried the ball to the 13. Litchman's pass to Turner in the end zone was complete for the third score of the game. Pohl's attempted kick was blocked.

LITCHMAN RAMBLES

Late in the last period Skymaster stopped another Pacific drive on the three yard line. Fairfield's kick was taken on the 37 by Medlin and run back to the 33. Litchman then took the ball and circled his left end for the final score, with but 15 seconds left in the game. The attempted conversion was wide and the final score read Pacific 25 and Fairfield 0.

By PHIL DRIECL

Football hopes should be high on the Pacific Campus this week. The Tiger's smashing win over Fairfield and Fleet City's gallant stand against mighty El Toro, both indicate that Coach A. A. Stag has a team to be watched on the Pacific Coast this season.

RESERVES SHINE

At the beginning of the current season, football experts predicted that Pacific would have a good first team, but that their chief weakness would be their lack of reserves. This theory was exploded last Friday night, when Litchman and Easton and other reserves played bangup ball. Even though the Skymaster's may not be considered a great grid power, the Tigers showed fine form in overcoming them.

FLEET CITY POWERFUL

Fleet City who squeezed out a 7-6 victory over C.O.P. in the opening game, proved that they have a powerful ball club when they gave the El Toro Marines a tough time last Sat. A glance at El Toro's lineup shows that they should be the service team to beat on the Coast this season. With Klemenok back in the lineup, the Tigers should do all right for themselves in future games.

CRYSTAL GAZING

Back in the peerless pick department, after a shaky start we made a great comeback last week picking both games correctly and the Fleet City-El Toro game right on the nose 13-7. Batting a solid .666 here are the picks of the week:

Pacific (13) over St. Mary's Preflight (7). The Tigers youth and daring over the Air Devil's experience.

Calif. (20) over St. Marys (7). Too much Bear for the budding young Gaels.

U.C.L.A. (14) over U.S.C. (13). Waterfield tips the scale in the Bruin's favor. Too close for comfort.

Fleet City (13) over Coast Guard (0). After the El Toro game we like the Bluejackets, Brumley and Rice in particular.

LOOSE ENDS

... Dean Corson, in his block "P" sweater, frightened the daylight out of a Skymaster man who mistook him for one of Seimering's mammoth linesmen last week.

... Jim Turner and Wiley Cousins played their usual heads up game last week. Both are defensive stone walls in the Tiger line.

... Bob Klein, rugged tackle, may be out of the Pacific lineup with an ankle injury tomorrow night.

... John Podesto, last year's all-American half, dropped in on his former stamping grounds last week.

... Paul McCarthy, sports editor of the Santa Claran, writes in to say that Santa Clara has adopted C.O.P. as it's team for the duration. He adds that the Tigers will get plenty of support from the Broncos at the Cal game.

First Game for Pre-Flights Third for Pacific Men

Our headline football game for 1944 will be tomorrow night when the College of the Pacific meets the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School from St. Mary's College at Baxter Stadium at 8:00 p. m.

Former Pacificites

The Air Medal has been awarded to Sec. Lt. Dexter B. Lasher for meritorious achievement while participating in several bombing attacks upon German military and industrial targets. Lt. Lasher is a pilot of an Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress in the heavy bombardment group commanded by Col. Elliott Vandevanter. His wife, the former Miss Betty Bender, is now living near Woodland, Calif.

Robert E. Stark, class of '43, after a few weeks of rest, has been assigned to his second tour of duty in rescue and hospital squadron. Mr. Stark visited friends on the campus during his leave.

Alumnus Irwin W. Lauppe has been promoted to the rank of captain in the U.S.M.C. and has been transferred to Edenton, N. C.

Lavern W. Newen has won his wings and has been commissioned a second lieutenant. He completed his training at the Army Air Force Advanced Flying School at Williams Field, Chandler, Ariz.

Pvt. Moble O. Keddle has completed basic training in a specialized branch of the Field Artillery at Camp Roberts and is now home on furlough before reporting to Camp Van Doren, Miss.

Staff Sgt. Charles R. Belforte was awarded the air medal in England on Aug. 7. He is a member of a Flying Fortress named "My Devotion."

John S. Miller has been in the Navy since July 1943 and is now attending a midshipman's school at Harvard University. He was a Navy V-12 student here. His brother Edward J. Miller is in the Army Medical Corps in England.

It's a "crucial" for the Tigers. Their rating among major football powers will be sharply forecast by this contest.

Spearheading the Pacific Tiger attack will be Charlie Cooke, 165 lb. halfback from San Francisco. Cooke has rightfully earned starting honors at rearback since triple-threatener Klemenok has been shelved by a bad knee.

SCHINDLER

Chief Specialist Ambrose Schindler may give valuable relief if his bothersome ankles are strong enough to stand the going. Possibility that Klemenok may get into the game to fire a few of his potent passes is the merest hope. Other Pacific backfielders expected to show strongly are Mark Litchman, Bob Pohl, Joe Luck, Wayne Hardin, and Bob Muentner.

FORWARD LINE

Our forward wall is constantly improving but lacks first line replacements and will be up against the toughest competition so far this year. The tackles, big Jim Turner and Bob Klein are playing great ball. The other line positions are manned by boys who still need veteranizing. Cousins and Semon are expected to start at guards, Ray Jackson at center, Mal Sinclair and Bill Milhaupt at ends. Milhaupt is the most rugged among the flanker men, but Sinclair is proving himself a flashy pass catcher.

Helen Graham Takes Second Place In S. F. Aquacade Last Week

Last Saturday's aquacade at the Elk's pool in San Francisco gave Helen Graham, a second place position to hang along side the two firsts she made in the PAA meet last month. Swimming in the short pool put Helen at a disadvantage as she has been used to the spacious "plunge" in Santa Cruz. Our mermaid's top rival in the senior women's 100 yard freestyle was Joyce Duke who took the race with a time of 1:02 as compared with Helen's 1:23. Duke had but a body's length lead on Graham at the finish with Betty Jo Goode coming in third with an equal lag. Those from the campus who witnessed the PAA meet in Santa Cruz Aug. 26, will recall the 50 yard backstroke in which Helen claimed second place. Last week she was crowned PAA backstroke champ after Betty Jo Goode was declared ineligible for the race. According to Warren A. "Skip" Littlefield, PAA swimming commissioner, any one who has already won a junior championship cannot enter another race of the same type under a junior status. Goode, it was discovered, had won the backstroke championship a year and a half ago, which now makes her a senior in that event.

The first place medal was sent to Miss Graham who in turn sent her second place to Helen Benson.

About 100,000 tons of steel ingots are required to build and equip a big battleship.

If something on a grander scale is desired, a waterproof, shock-proof watch is practical if the GI doesn't own one. A dog tag chain of silver or other untarnishable medal will go over big. A pocket comb, or an unbreakable mirror of a size large enough will be useful. Playing cards, pocket-size games, sheet music, harmonica or ocarina would contribute to the soldier's off-duty entertainment.

GI JANE

For the girl in service, personal gadgets are good only if they are practical. Her favorite cosmetics are a good gift if packed in unbreakable, leak-proof containers. GI Jane could probably use a pair of soft bedroom slippers and a simple housecoat. These are just a few of the many articles suggested by the Red Cross.

According to Bill Milhaupt, Treasurer of the PSA, at least 150 couples will have to attend in order to break even on the dance. This is necessary due to the reduction in the admission price.

Don't forget, bids go on sale next Monday, September 25th!

DR. KNOLES

Dr. Knoles, puttering in his backyard last Saturday afternoon, stopped us to exhibit his latest treasure, a small English-style saddle which one of his sons, serving in the South Pacific, took from a Jap officer's horse. It arrived wrapped in a Jap duffel bag. What Dr. Knoles really wants however, is the white horse which the Honorable Emperor rides. Seems that it and the familiar white one which the Dr. himself rides daily are brothers.

Silhouette Artist Will Be Present At S. C. A. Dance

Silhouette artist Mrs. Avis Horn Kurtzweil has consented to be present at the S.C.A. Silhouette Dance on September 30.

Mrs. Kurtzweil has done cutting at church bazaars, Iowa State Fairs, and the Kansas City Stock Show. The cuttings at the dance will be 25c including mounting.

She started her silhouettes as a hobby eleven years ago, and has since become one of twenty-five such artists in America.

NIMITZ

This command is making the most progress of them all. Probably the next on the list are the Bonins and Volcanos, both groups having received heavy mailings from the task forces. The Bonins are 600 miles from Tokyo. Also from the Aleutians, an attack against Paramushiro is a possibility—figuring as the northern pincers in the final attack. Another possibility is a drive in conjunction with MacArthur's to Formosa and the coast from the captured Marianas bases, or to the Philippines. The attacks on Halmahera and Palau point to that. The Japs fear this too, as they have announced evacuation of Davao in the southern Philippines.

Lt. Ralph W. Wright, Pacific, And New Bride Visit Stockton

A Pacific graduate of last year, Lt. Ralph W. Wright of the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, and his bride, the former Miss Violet C. Bollinger, of Louisville, Ky., have just departed for Camp Pendleton, following a visit of five days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fenton C. Wright, Stockton.

brother, Plt. Sgt. James J. Bollinger, of August 26 in the post chapel at Quantico, Florida, where the bridegroom was stationed. The best man was Lt. Willis Boyarski, a fellow Pacificite.

Following a brief wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the couple visited her home in Louisville before leaving to drive to Stockton on their way to Camp Pendleton. They met at Quantico during a visit of Miss Bollinger to her brother, Plt. Sgt. James J. Bollinger. She is a graduate of Louisville schools.

A graduate of C.O.P., Ralph is affiliated with the Delta Sigma Psi fraternity. He is also a member of the San Francisco Olympic Club. An outstanding swimmer, he was sent with Freddie Taioli to represent C.O.P. in the national swimming meet in Ohio. He was listed among the "Who's Who" in the 1944 edition of outstanding college students of the nation.

Miss Mildred Eachus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Eachus, who recently revealed her engagement to James Clayton Cole, USNR.

Cards Received in Mail Reveal Engagement of Mildred Eachus

Cards have recently been received in the mail here on campus announcing the engagement of Miss Mildred Eachus to Mr. James C. Cole, A.S., of the United States Naval Reserve.

The announcement was first made at a party held at her home in Dunsmuir on September 15. Mildred is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Eachus of that place. She was a five-year student of Pacific and graduated last March. She now holds a position as a high school teacher at Corning, California. While here at Pacific, she majored in music. She was president of the S.C.A. in 1943, president of Women's Hall in 1942, and she led the Chapel choir in her senior years. She was listed in the 1942-43 edition of "Who's Who Among College Students in the United States."

James Cole is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cole of Redwood City. He attended Menlo Park Junior College and has had overseas duty with the Navy. At the present no wedding date has been set for the newly engaged couple.

IT'S UP TO YOU

Tonight is the night! The night for what? Why, the long-awaited watermelon feed sponsored by the Associated Women Students, of course.

HARD WORK

Due to conditions beyond their control, the girls of the AWS have had to postpone this event for quite some time. However, ever since they first conceived of the idea, they have been trying to follow it through.

Many students have been disappointed because of its previous cancellation. But they should be happy now.

YOUR TURN

The girls have worked very hard to make this event a success. However, whether the watermelon feed will be a success or not tonight is up to you individually. The girls have done their work, now it is your turn to do your share by turning out for the event.

PACIFIC MANEUVERS

Pacific hasn't been doing much maneuvering lately except in the war of football, but a few couples have been seen together, so here goes with what news we have.

STEADY TWOSOMES

Steady twosomes that are seen everywhere together include Art LeClert and Mary Schlink, Bill Milhaupt and Marie Arbios, and Danny Jackson and Rosemary Moore. Nice going, kids!!!

IDEAL COUPLES

This week your reporters have decided to pair off coeds and trainees that we think would look good together. It's all in fun, and don't take it too seriously unless you want to. Here goes!

1. Flo Strand 'n' Roger Starr.
2. Pat Rodegerts 'n' Bob Chinn.
3. Sharon Lewis 'n' Bob Rule.
4. Barbara Merrill 'n' Dick Payne.
5. Jeanette Morrison 'n' Bob Leeson.
6. Betty Mott 'n' Bob Klein.
7. Alice Craig 'n' Bill Anderson.
8. Taye Bramwell 'n' Jim Oliver.
9. Betty Schultz 'n' Paul Teter (Note last week's Navy Column).
10. Vera Freeman 'n' Ray Jackson.

LATEST RUMOR

Latest rumor on campus has to do with Betty Ford and her alleged marriage to an OLT at Stockton Field by the name of Bob Johnstone. It appears that some of Bob's friends have cooked this all up, and Betty's going along with the gag, or is it a gag, Betty???? More power to you!!

WEARING A RING

Another gal that has been wearing a wedding ring of late is Doris Comfort. She really gave the students in Marriage Psych. a scare the other way. Wishful thinking, Doris?????

QUESTION OF WEEK

Question of the week: Is Art Richards trying to break up the purple passion between Lena Bachigalupi and Jimmie???? We doubt it as it seemed like quite a torch before he left!!!!

ABOUT A FEUD

It appears as if the honorable ?? Carfagni of Cadaver Hall wishes to start a feud with your reporters for some reason. Maybe the fact that he would like a little publicity in our column has something to do with it. If you can get a girl to go out with you, Art, we will fix you up. Hmmm ?????!!!!

JUST A WORD

The prevalence this semester of Unit men with probationary status has wrought a gradual change in the week-end outlook here on campus. Heretofore "pro" and otherwise restricted men have moped around bawling their respective fates, listening wistfully to the tall tales of Great and Glorious Week-ends told by their more fortunate buddies. No more—for these worthies are staging their own private Renaissance. Their motto: "If Mohammed can't go to the mountain, bring the mountain to Mohammed!" We're thinking of staying in next week-end, too. . .

FOOTBALL TEAM

The football team did a whopping job of cleaning up the Fairfield Airfield Backfield, and without Schindler or Klemmink. With those boys back in, the Eleven should really walk off with the honors.

COME ONE, COME ALL!

THE SKYMASTER GAME WAS GREAT EVEN THO' I HAD TO WALK HOME

By CAMPUS CLEO

I was determined not to be late for that Pacific, Skymaster game like I was the week before so I hopped into Della Mennie, my car, and began zigzagging in and out of traffic. You know no matter how fast I went, I couldn't keep men from hollering at me! A woman driver just simply isn't safe these days.

ARRIVAL

I arrived just before the Fairfield WAC Marching Unit started marching through the gate to their seats. I started too, right ahead of them, through the gate, but the next thing I knew I was holding a GI bobby pin twenty yards back from where I started. This will never do, Cleo, I told myself, so I forged right through the line, up the stairs, and to a seat near COP's rooting section.

I settled down comfortably, crossed my legs, folded my hands in what might be termed 'sweet repose,' when a sailor started muttering "Crunches, Goodies, Happees, Joyees, Yumees . . ." I couldn't figure out what it was all about so I asked him. Sadly he answered, "Crispie French Fried Potatoes," and then again he began "Crunches, Goodies, Happees . . ." line again. Poor kid, I guess he fractured his nervous system trying to think of a name for those shoestring potatoes.

KICK-OFF

The game started. Wish they'd take out the bleachers and put in escalators so a person wouldn't have to give their corns such a workout jumping up and down. The crowd, including me, just about sprung an artery when COP made that first touchdown, but above the roar was the low monotonous "Crunches, Goodies, Happees, Joyees, Yumees . . ." stuff. Hope the poor guy at least gets honorable mention when the contest results come out. He deserves it.

At the half I bought a program to find out who Tommy Tiger is. I sure found out. The answer is so simple; he's played by "himself." He's not bad as tigers run, or should I say dance?

BETTER THINGS

It was wonderful when Pacific made that touchdown in the last few minutes of playing time. I gave an extra special Tarzan hoot. The "Crunches, Goodies . . ." business was still going on, but I heard another different tonal key in back of me. I listened to see what's what, and I'm pretty good at that for I come from a small town and am experienced at that party line listen-in technique.

"Do you think they're happy? Well, she's all right when I don't have to look at her every day at the office, but my dear, have you heard that he . . ." I decided some people just don't appreciate the better things in life. Those gals apparently haven't heard of the old saying, "When in Rome, do as the Romans do."

NO STAMPS

The whistle blew, and the game was over. I found Della Mennie just where I'd left her, but when I turned on the switch the gas meter registered away below zero, and me with no more gas stamps!

Well—I didn't mind walking home anyway, for I was so happy. You know that "Skymasters" is really a lovely name—as long as those boys stay up in the sky.

A. W. S. Salvage Committee Organized For Paper Drive

As a part of its War Activities program, the Associated Women Students have appointed a new committee—the Salvage Committee. Its functions will be to cooperate with the Civilian Defense in the monthly drive for waste paper. As soon as the manner in which the collection will be carried out is announced, students will be asked to cooperate with the work.

Chairman of this new branch of the War Activities committee is Eleanor Miles. Her committee members include Janet James, Elaine Wiefel, Betty Ferrari, Thelma Berg, Jan Gruener, and Meda Aden.

By WAYNE PERRY

Last Friday night Pacific really came through with a smashing victory against Fairfield Airbase, and two or three of the fellows in civies who helped make that 25-0 score possible really deserve mention. Big Bill Mahlstedt, Mal Sinclair, and Martin Easton were all in there fighting.

SPOTLIGHT

However, the spotlight this week should be turned in Marty Easton's direction. In the full-back spot Marty powerhoused some very fine sustained drives down the field in the direction of the opponents' goal posts—take a look at those broad shoulders of his the next time you see him on campus, and you'll immediately realize where he gets his terrific line-cracking power.

NOW

And now it seems that our fine athlete, Fred Brott, has stepped back into the picture with a pale little blaze of glory and a carton of cottage cheese in each hand. Yes, he, along with our now-famous Bill Smulyan and Justine Marshall, is working in Tuttle's cottage cheese factory here in Stockton. With the "Terrible Trio" putting the cottage cheese together everyone had better watch his bites—a little of that cheese will go too far. With the cheese these fellows bring home in their hair, all that is needed is a slice of pineapple for each and a nice salad would be the result.

PLEDGING

Lambda Nu Phi has started summer pledging with a small but very fine-looking pledge class. Of course these fellows have a good time to look forward to for the next few weeks (???).

Since the announcement of his engagement two weeks ago, Don Ambler has been walking around in a mist. Remember, Coach Stagg stated a few weeks ago in Assembly that marriage seemed to cause men to become very forgetful—well, Mr. Ambler seems to be suffering from that malady even in this early stage of his engagement. However, everyone helps him out—we all remind him to put his shirt on before attending lectures. He will, in all probability, pull through with flying colors.
