News Analysis

By ART CARFAGNI

"Come you back you British soldier, come you back to Mandalay." So wrote Kipling in his famed poem. However, since the early part of 1942, the Japanese had occupied that region, but last week, Mandalay and much of surrounding Burma were again in allied hands.

TO SINGAPORE

This recapture of Mandalay was part of a campaign that will not be ended until Singapore and Malaya are recaptured, and which started in June 1944 when the Japanese invasion of India was thrown back. Since then, forces of the Southeast Asia command have staged several land-sea leap frog operations down the Burmese coast, bringing them in striking distance of Rangoon. Too, the land armies have been backed up by a newly arrived Royal Navy task force, which has been described as being larger than the entire Japanese navy, or remnants thereof, and a sizeable air force. The headquarters for this fleet have been set up in Australia.

HOMELAND

On another Pacific front, the US Navy's task forces and the US Army's 21st Air force are between them battering up the Japanese homeland to a great extent, with the latest raid of 300 plus B-29's called the largest action in the entire Pacific theatre. An area equal to about one-third of San Francisco was demolished, and approximately 1,000,000 people were made homeless, by this raid. As for the navy's share, it spent the week by striking at the long Ryukyu chain of islands south of Japan and by sending planes of

P. L. T. Presents Two Hit Plays

'Charlie's Aunt' In Upstairs Production, 'Brief Candle'

The Pacific Conservatory is a lively place these evenings with two productions gathering steam under its roof. A new and interesting play entitled "Brief Candle" by Robert Powell and directed by June Wilde, will be the second of the three studio theatre plays presented this year. Rehearsals and sets are now under way and the cast is hard at work. The plot concerns the changing generations from the old fashion ways to the new.

Dr. John Gross Visits Two Days on COP Campus

"In our present dual educational system, the justification for church-related higher education is its ability to strengthen the spiritual ties of American life", Dr. John O. Gross declared yesterday to the College of the Pacific faculty as he concluded a two-day visit to the local campus.

MAKING TOUR

Representing the national commission of Christian higher education for the American association of colleges and universities, and the department of educational institutions of the Methodist Church in America, Gross is touring Western colleges.

BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS

Gross commended the architectural unity and beauty of landscaping of the Pacific campus, and declared that its improvements are a credit to an administration that knows how to get the very most from the gifts and funds at its disposal. Especially the new Morris Chapel, he believes, represents a great deal more than the actual funds put into it suggest.

The unique relationship between the College of Pacific and Stockton Junior College, a public tax supported college and a privately endowed, church-related institution smoothly coordinating a total higher educational program on one campus, Gross called one of the interesting experiments in the educational world today. He believes the plan may prove significant as a precedent and a pattern for communities, especially in other states, where the junior college movement may emerge to find itself in specific competition with private institutions.

Gross has no fears for church-related education, either financially or educationally. The Methodist church has increased giving to its colleges 400% in four years, he states, and its educators know that the colleges must teach an "understanding of values" as well as an impersonal body of knowledge.

CAST LISTED

Bob Blagg and Gail Monroe represent the younger generation as Rodney and Cynthia, respectively, and Jane Baty and Warren Hill take the part of the older generation as Miss N'tice and Admiral John Standish. Supporting them are Charlotte Verdi as Mary, the companion servant; Roy Nielson, the sailor; Don Hertel as Gordon and Barbara Shaw as Sarah.

The play will open on Wednesday, March 28th, and will run also on Thursday, the 29th.

The night rehearsals are not only bringing forth the fruits of the Studio Theatre, for the spotlights will soon be turned on the latest P. L. T. show, "Charlie's Aunt".

COMEDY OF ERRORS

It is a hilarious comedy of errors which no one will want to miss. In the cast we have: Roger Starr as Jack Chesney; Art Farley as Lord Fancourt Bobberly (alias Charlie's Aunt); Byron Meyer as Charles Wykeham, Nancy Deming as Amy Spettigue, Spettigue's niece; Maxine Owens as Kitty Verdun, Spettigue's ward; Ken Leedom as Col. Sir Francis Chesney, Ted Golling as Stephen Spettigue, John Grether a farmer, "Casey" Ruggeri as Conna Lucia D'Alvadorez (from Brazil where the nuts come from) Doris Perkins as Ela Delahoy, an orphan; and Betty Schultz as Maud, a parlor-maid.

"Charlie's Aunt" will play on April 6th, 7th, 13th and 14th.

The question has again risen, "Why P.S.A., and what do we get out of it?"

To begin with, we must have enough students "put into" P. S.A. before anything startling can come out of it. We of the ex-committee are your chosen representatives and we want to initiate all possible in the way of activities that we can for P.S.A. card holders. So buy your card now, and tell your friends to do likewise. With this kind of support for our organization, we can give you an accelerated semester of activity. Without it—? You can answer that for yourself.

Signed:

Lelia "Casey" Ruggeri.

PSA Card Sales Pass 500 Mark

Buy a PSA Card, and Participate In Sports, Debate and Elections

With the second week of sales drawing to a close, the sale of PSA cards has gone past the 500 mark, as recorded down in the comptroller's office. Of this five hundred, 350 were from on campus girls, and another fifteen were from the men quartered-above the gymnasium.

New Weekly Staff Writers, Editors Named for Spring

With the new semester, in came a brand new staff for the Spring edition of the Weekly. Many of the fellas and gals on last semester's staff were kicked upstairs, while many others are facing their first year on the staff.

STAFF MEMBERS

Roster for this semester stands as follows: the position of editor, Lord of the Almighty, and Purveyor of All Fates is held down by Earlene Waters, who was last semester's society editor; squatting upon the second spot, and called by staff friends the executive editor is Art Carfagni; number three staff man is Iris Scribner, in as associate editor; Karl Kroeber, last year's sports editor is still with us; Mary Flaa was upped from associate society editor to society editor minus the associate; Bob McKim succeeds Olga Billones as stylus pushing editor (art editor); Roger Starr remains with us as drama editor; Norma Sprague is in as feature editor; Peggy O'Connor is the exchange editor; and June Hoffman is plunked in as news editor. Each of these editors is a member of the editorial board.

BUSINESS STAFF

As for the business end of the deal, Nancy Kaiser, last semester's able and amiable editor has taken over that branch and is assisted in her ads getting by Nancy Deming, she of smooth voice and sound psychology, and Jimmie Yokum.

Among the advantages to be gained by purchasing this card are use of the PSA donated swimming pool in those hot spring months when a dig will do the trick; a chance to get F.O.B. the Weekly; the opening to participate in campus elections and other college extra-curricular activities; admission to Pacific's inter-collegiate games of which there will be many this semester; and a chance to show your dramatic talents because with a PSA card you can, if you have the ability, become an "actor on the stage."

An especially aspect of PSA card buying is the fact that it entitles you to run for an office. This will come in handy later in the semester, at which time the annual PSA election for the student body officers will be held. Remember, without a card, you cannot be nominated for an office.

Another phase of PSA buying is that you receive the Weekly, which you cannot do unless you have a PSA card. This semester, the members of the publications committee have emphatically decided that with no PSA card, there will be no Weekly, as otherwise it would be distinctly unfair to those who have purchased cards.

As for the sports, that would be of most interest to the fellows on the campus, for the spring season comes out with many sports in which one holding a card can participate, tennis, swimming, track, baseball, to mention some.

Too, without a card, one cannot participate in one of Pacific's winning debate teams, which incidentally has just left for a tourney at Linfield, Oregon.

So, by a logical process of verbal mathematics, the best way to get into the many campus activities is to step up to the booth on the main floor of the Administration Bldg. plunk down $7.50 (or $5.00 if you are in the navy) and walk away with an orange and black pass to extra-curricular activities.

Student-Teachers Number 133 at COP

Dean Jantzen has announced that there are now 133 students on campus working for teaching credentials—63 for secondary degrees and 50 for elementary.

The School of Education at the College of Pacific is doing all it can to help the extreme teacher shortage in California at this time.

All Senior College students interested in elementary teaching should see Mrs. McCall in Anderson Hall. Those wanting to obtain a secondary degree are asked to see Dean Jantzen on the first floor in the Administration Building.

FORMER PACIFICITES

By Norma Sprague

Although it has been almost a month since I sat down to type my weekly attempt, all has been comparatively quiet on this front and if there were more than these few familiar faces on campus they must have been lost in the flurry of registration, vacation (?), and registration again.

"Bud" Savage, one of our former football names came back to the home roost wearing the gold braid of a Lt. Comdr. last week.

On the same day, we caught a glimpse of Lt. (j.g.) Bill Toland wandering around with Betty Taylor, who used to work in the Information Office.

Ens. Jack Burns dropped in to say good-bye as did Ens. Howard Lenz just prior to the end of the last semester. They are both scheduled for overseas in the near future.

George Fowler dropped in to say hello (in a navy blue suit — one of the latest things in men's fashions, you know.) His younger brother, Paul is an ARM 2/c. The "R" stands for radio, they tell me.

News of one of these frequent Pacific theatre get-togethers of Pacificites has developed into a family reunion also. Lt. (j.g.) Walt Gilbert and his brother Earl, MM 3/c not only ran into each other on the Hawaiian Islands, but they met Omer Thompson, ARM 1/c, too—and the three of them went swimming at Waikiki Beach.

Writing home from the Philippines is Sgt. Dante Pedrini. "Dante" was a graduate in 1933.

Writing from somewhere at sea, Lt. Dick Morrall sends us the news that Del Wescott is a Major in the Marines now.

The fellows who are coming back to our campus on the G. I. Bill of Rights and the Vocational Rehabilitation Program aren't all new faces. Stanley Daubenbeis (recently of the U. S. Army) was not too long ago one of the SJC students living at the men's Co-op. Jacob Strohm is back, too. Registered as an art major is Sanford Moberly, another former army man . . . and loyal Archite.

Beth and Jerry Winter stopped in to say hello recently. Beth is a storekeeper 2/c in Waves, now. You'll probably remember Jerry as our last male PSA Prexy.

A former "Pacific Weekly" man steps into the spotlight with the news that Bill Becker has just been appointed sports editor for the Los Angeles Bureau of the Associated Press. Bill played with the first Stagg coached teams at C.O.P. His home was in Chicago, and he followed the Grand Old Man to the West Coast. On Wednesday, March 14, an original radio play by Becker was released on the "Dr. Christian" program. (Did you listen?) While here at Pacific, Bill was not only sports editor of the "Weekly" at one time but also the business manager.

Among the V-12 sailors from other schools who were home for the period in between semester were Steven Little, Darrell Dentoni, and Bob Laughead.

All of last semester there appeared an address in this column each week. No results seemed to be forthcoming, and we were on the verge of discontinuing this feature. Then last week news reached us that because of one of the addresses we included, two former school buddies were able to get in touch with one another again. Therefore, somewhat encouraged, we plunge back into that routine with Bob McKeegan, who can be reached with the following address: Ens. R. F. McKeegan, U.S.S. L.S.T. 646 c/o Fleet Postoffice, San Francisco, California.

EXCHANGES

From the Jungle Chant paper at Reedley Junior College comes this advice for dancers.

Three ways to avoid embarrassment when you fall on the floor while dancing.

1. Just lie there; they'll think you fainted.
2. Get up gracefully; they'll think it's part of the dance.
3. Start mopping the floor with your handkerchief; they'll think you just work there.

POST MORTEM

By ART CARFAGNI

First, a word describing the purpose, mission, evolution and what have you of this column.

HISTORY

(We could start this with the classic O.U.T.—"once upon a time" but instead we'll say "many.") Many semesters ago, there was a group on this campus whose major specialized in the art of healing, both the capitalistic and the socialized variety. This group was called by both friends and enemies alike the "pre-meds" although it was easy to tell by emphasis and voice tone whether this was meant as a greeting, slur, sneer, challenge, compliment, threat, etc.

CADAVER HALL

This group lived in what is now Freshman Hall, and they called their retreat Cadaver Hall, the home of decayed cats, formaldehyde, bloody scalpels, shrieks in the night — or so the other COPEons imagined. Too, a member of this group published in the Weekly each issue an innocent, but still good, column which told of various goings-on at the house. This column was appropriately called (pause) CADAVER HALL; no doubt many here still remember it.

In those days, many semesters ago, most of the navy students were either pre-meds or post-meds, the latter being those pre-meds who dropped the scalpel and picked up the sextant. As time passed, the number of pre-meds got steadily less, until today there are not enough to have five games of four handed bridge (or ten games of honeymoon bridge.) In effect, the pre-meds were the true "Vanishing Americans."

As for this column, it reigned supreme, dispensing wit, information and other things for four and one-half semesters until one black day it suffered the fate that most books do in Boston. (The official report stated that it made "Forever Amber" and the "Well of Loneliness" look like bedtime stories in comparison.)

Red Cross War Fund Advances Toward Quota

San Joaquin County Chapter Red Cross War Fund campaign was well on its way to victory today following the first report meeting on March 6 when chairmen of divisions and branches reported a total of $87,130, or 38.7 per cent of the quota of $225,000.

Encouraging news came from the report of the Linden-Farmington branch which went over the top by subscribing $4511 of 5.5 per cent over the quota of $4275.

More encouraging news came from the report of the special gifts division in the Stockton district which reported 86.9 per cent of its quota of $36,450 already contributed. Turned in at the initial report meeting was $31,665.

County branch quotas and the amount turned in at the first report meeting follow: Manteca, $9,225, $541; Escalon, $5400, $1573; Linden-Farmington, $4275, $4511; Lodi, $35,325, $14,090; Clements-Lockeford, $2475; Ripon, $4275, $33; Tracy, $14,175, $2764; Thornton-Terminous, $2025.

Chapter Campaign Chairman George A. Ditz is enthusiastic over the possibilities of raising this year's chapter quota and he has urged all of his workers to make their contacts early. At the same time he urges contributors to have their contributions ready when the collector calls in order that the campaign go over the top by March 16th.

"The need is great," Ditz emphasized, "and we will only be letting our boys and girls at the front down if the 1945 campaign fails. It's up to every individual to make a contribution."

He backed up his statement by quoting from a letter sent to Mrs. Alice M. Kowatch, 1321 San Juan, Stockton, by her husband, Sgt. Raymond J. Kowatch, interned at Stalag Luft IV, Germany.

"We get a parcel from the Red Cross each week. It has food in it so we manage fairly well. See the Red Cross in town."

By BRUCE COLEMAN

The reduced crew returned to the good ship C.O.P. last week with definite new sets to their jibs. These new "fronts" ranged from broken ankles and poison-oaked pans to the case of one limping Able Seaman who fell into a manhole. See "Bilgewater" Cody for details on what goes on beneath the manhole covers.

MANY DEPART

We wish the best of smooth sailin' to the following men who have recently left the unit: Abbott, Ahern, Alexander, Anderson, Barr, Beazell, Brede, Burrows, Burton, Christopher, Conrow, Covill, Davison, Dexter, Doerr, Falconer, Fischer, Germann, Gilchrist, Grant, Grubb, Harbour, Harwood, Higgs, Hinckley, Hoffman, Hollcraft, Hopkins, Hopper, Howard, Hoxsie, Huntington, Jackson, Lenz, O'Brien, Menzies, Murphy, Noall, O'Brien, Olivas, Pedigo, Perkin, Pohl, Reiss, Richards, Sahlberg, Schwarz, Stephenson, Thatcher, Towle, Vavruska, Vilkin, Wilhelm, and Wilmsen.

RED DOG RETURNS

Red Dog, Coxswain, U.S.N.R., more fortunate than his buddies, returned to his classes a few days late this semester. He said that he had spent most of his leave visiting the hot spots around town and was late in reporting due to a relapse in his recuperation schedule. We're glad to have you aboard, Red Dog, but feel that you'd be safer in Kookamon-go.

A fifteen-minute "Happy Hour" took place last Friday night in the lobby of Barracks A. Atwater and Russell took turns at the piano, Starr vocaled, a yokel "danced", and Grant the Barker, barked. The take (thirty-seven cents and two bus tokens) was split three ways. Politics.

C.O.P. Debate Squad Attends Linfield Meet

College of Pacific's debate team was represented by Marilyn Dow, Dorothy Gelatt, Robert Mackey, and Manuel Furtado at the fifteenth annual Pi Kappa Delta Invitational Forensic Tournament at Linfield College, Oregon, last week-end.

They participated in a debate on the question: "Resolved, that There Should be Compulsory Arbitration of Labor Disputes." In addition Mr. Furtado, Miss Gelatt, and Mr. Mackey entered an extemporaneous speaking contest, in which Mr. Furtado won first place.

Marilyn Dow and Dorothy Gelatt took part in oratory declamation, with Miss Dow reaching the finals. She also made the finals in interpretive reading, when she read a cut from "Uncle Harry." Furtado and Mackey entered the impromptu speaking contest.

Leaving here on Tuesday the team arrived in Oregon to attend the contests on last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, returning to Stockton last Sunday. Sixty-five debate teams from twenty-two different schools, and six states, including Washington, California, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, and Utah, participated in this tournament.

Lambda Nu Phi Elect Dick Johnson Head For Spring Semester

Dick Johnson, Lambda Nu Phi Fraternity member and past president of that organization, again took over the duties of president when he was elected last Thursday night at the fraternity headquarters on Euclid Avenue. Johnson succeeds Wayne Perry.

Other officers elected for the Spring semester are Al Kolb, secretary; Don Angler, treasurer; Don Noble and Bill Roberts, chaplain and guard, respectively.

On the calendar for the fraternity's coming social events is the second annual Sweetheart Dance and a Band Frolic. Hector Pratt and Ben Hold are in charge of the arrangements.

Ortha Met Para Chemistry Society Plans Big Semester

Ortha Meta Para, the honorary chemical society, recently elected new officers for the coming spring term. Elected were Art Carfagni as president; Ray Oliveri as vice president; Anna Kotoff as the secretary-treasurer; and Gus Raney as the initiations chairman.

INITIATION CEREMONIES

This semester's program will officially begin with the formal initiation ceremonies which are to be held on March 21. It has not yet been ascertained just how many new members will be admitted to membership. The program for this spring includes at least two lectures by noted men of the San Joaquin region, and for the last meeting of the semester an outing to one of the region's watering places, or reasonable facsimile thereof.

'45 Pin-Up Girl Is Selected by Lambda Nu Phi

Lambda Nu Phi Fraternity has chosen as their 1945 Pin-Up Girl Miss Charlotte Harker of the University of California at Los Angeles. Runner-up in the contest was also a UCLA coed, Miss Eleanor Greenuf. Both girls will receive gold trophies from the Lambda Nu Phi. Miss Allie Bargum of Fresno State, who received honorable mention, will receive a contestant letter.

The selection of a pin-up girl by the members of Lambda Nu Phi has become a yearly event with this contest being the second of its kind. Dick Johnson and Don Ambler were in charge of the arrangements.

The fraternity members request entries from colleges all over the country, with this year's participation being over 70 colleges represented. Pictures of the various candidates are then sent to Pacific for the fraternity's vote.

Tri Betes to Meet Plan Big Initiation

Having elected officers too late last semester to get the news into the Weekly, the first news that will be published about Tri-Bete is the new roster of officers.

NEW OFFICERS

In as the president we have Ted Wood; as vice president, the beautiful Betty Holt; as the secretary-treasurer there is Russel McFall; and in as coordinator of publicity sits Art Carfagni.

INITIATION TO BE HELD

The first stimulus that will motivate the members is the coming initiation of new members and the rising of provisional members to regular status. Following this, there will be a number of meetings at which speakers will lecture upon things relevant to the purpose of the society. However, the exact schedule of meetings has not as yet been fully worked out.

Faculty sponsor for tri-bete is Dr. Alden Noble, zoology prof, who has spent many years in biological research.

After having served the usual pledge period, the pledges of the three greek letter houses on campus are being initiated into membership in their respective houses.

Tau Kappa Kappa was a little ahead of the other houses in that they held their initiation at the close of last semester. An informal initiation climaxed their hell-week on February 8, and their formal candlelight ceremony followed on February 21. Those who became new members are: Kay Buhl, Frances Mack, Marian Phillips, and Clara Ruiz. Dorothy Lightner was formally initiated last night in an additional candlelight ceremony.

Marilyn Thomas was individually initiated on Feb. 10, because she was unable to be in attendance on Thursday.

Alpha Theta Tau took: Betty Broder, Betty Lou Cooper, Marsha Grey, Mary Kenley, Shirley Lamar, Marilyn Meister, and Joan O'Connor into membership last night at a candlelight ceremony. Their informal initiation preceded on Wednesday.

Marilyn Thomas-Francis Keppel Married on Last Sunday - March 11 At St. John's Episcopal Church

Dressed in white satin with a long veil and train, Miss Marilyn Thomas became the bride of Flight Officer Francis A. Keppel of the Army Air Forces in a double ring ceremony, at 3:00 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal Church. Reverend George Foster Pratt officiated.

Marilyn carried a small white prayer book adorned with a white orchid and white satin streamers. She was attended by Miss Nancy Trenkel as maid of honor, who was dressed in pale pink and carried a French bouquet. Lt. Joseph Fluty, AAF, acted as best man.

Misses Doris Edna Forslund and Carolyn Remington were bridesmaids. They were dressed in aqua gowns and carried French bouquets. Misses Betty Kuechler, Betty Griffin, Janice McCaffrey and Patricia Cleghorn directed guests to their seats and took part in the ceremony. They were dressed in pale pink.

After the wedding, a reception was held at Epsilon sorority house on the campus where Marilyn is a member. The house was decorated with white spring blossoms and white candles. Misses Beatrice Belander, Dorothy Emigh, Helene Haabesland, Helen Cummings and Beverly Billups, sorority sisters of the bride, served guests at the reception.

After the reception the couple left on an extended honeymoon. They will live in Arizona where the groom is stationed at Chandler Field.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Averil Thomas of Stockton. She is a graduate of Stockton High School, where she was affiliated with the Reniston Club. She is now attending Stockton

Mrs. Grace Jones New H'semother Is Interviewed

This is the first of a series of interviews on new personalities seen around campus.

Hailing from Wisconsin, Mrs. Grace Jones, newly appointed housemother of West Hall, came to Stockton simply to be near her brother and her niece, who is Miss Ruth Smith, head of the French Department, but ended up by taking over the responsibility of 45 girls.

Mrs. Jones, a music teacher by profession, has held many interesting jobs. She taught music in Berkeley, Piedmont, and San Francisco, then journeyed east to teach in Milwaukee and Madison. Diverting her interests from music awhile, she accepted a position as social hostess at a resort in Florida, where she aided in entertaining such notables as Winston Churchill. She has also been a social hostess at a resort on Lookout Mountain in Tennessee, and at White Mountains, New Hampshire.

Turning to her more personal interests now, Mrs. Jones confesses to a great liking of cats. Two of her chief pets were named Inky-Black-out Jones, and General Fousch. She enjoys gardening, and likes to watch tennis matches and football games. Her chief dislikes are monkeys and snakes.

Big-Little Sisters Are Entertained at Party Monday Nite

Last Monday night was the date of the annual Associated Women Students Big-Little Sister party. A Barn Dance theme lent gayety to the gym. Entertainment, community singing and refreshments were a part of the evening that was highlighted by a fashion show, in which campus coeds displayed the latest campus fashions for spring.

The new girls on campus were contacted by older students (big sisters) and were escorted to and from the party by them. This process has been instituted by the A.W.S. in an effort to get acquainted with the new girls.

BARBARA HUSSEY ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Barbara Hussey to Ensign George Coats, USNR, was made March 5 at Sophomore Hall. The traditional five-pound box of candy was delivered by Arlene Stoy and Helen Cummings who presented it to Marilyn Richie and Norma Browe. A miniature shoulderboard attached to the box revealed the news.

Miss Hussey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hussey of Auburn. She is a past worthy advisor of The Order of Rainbow and is a member of senior orchestra on campus.

Ensign Coats is the son of Mrs. A. Middlewick of Grass Valley. He was a member of the V-12 unit here for three semesters and he received his commission at Columbia University in December, 1944. Following his commission he received his advanced line training at Hollywood Beach, Florida. At the present time he is studying communications at Harvard University.

The couple plan to be married during the early part of June.

Susan Conklin, Bob Mix Married In San Diego

Former student of the Stockton Junior College and the College of the Pacific, Miss Susann Marietta Conklin became the bride of Robert Herman Mix, U.S.M.C.R., also of the Stockton Junior College on February 24, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Diego.

The ceremony took place at 8 p. m. and Canon C. Rankin Barns officiated. Miss Conklin was attended by her cousin, Mr. Charles Schock of San Diego. Misses Molly Dur, Phyllis Sears, and Betty Evens acted as bridesmaids. Edwin Martin, Jr., U.S.M.C.R., served as best man.

Miss Conklin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reese Conklin of Pt. Loma, and she is a graduate of Pt. Loma High School,

Navy Wedding February 25 for West Hall Coed

Culminating a romance which had its inception in Baltimore, Md., is the marriage of Miss Dorisanne Fleming to Frank H. Shewbridge, Jr., seaman first class, aerial gunner in the navy.

The couple exchanged vows Sunday, February 25th, at an informal afternoon ceremony in the navy chapel at Whidby Island, the service.

The new Mrs. Shewbridge has returned to the campus and is residing in West Hall. She will complete this semester, her high freshman year, and then depart for Jacksonville, Fla., where she will join her husband who expects to be transferred there to continue aerial gunnery school.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Fleming of Palo Alto. She attended schools in Baltimore and Palo Alto.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Shewbridge of Baltimore. He is a graduate of the Polytechnic Institution in Baltimore and later attended John Hopkins University. He has been in the navy for two years.

PSA Welcome Dance Given Tomorrow Nite In Gymnasium

According to Miss June Wilde, vice president of the student body and social chairman of the P.S.A., the welcoming dance that will be held in the gym tomorrow night from 8:30 to 12 p. m. promises to be a big success. All freshmen and new students will be honored guests of this first social function of the spring semester.

Admission to this record dance will be by student body card only, and students are asked to please turn in their temporary cards for the official orange ones by tomorrow night.

The Irish St. Patrick's Day theme will be used in the decorations, with green shamrocks for atmosphere.

Diamond Hopefulls Now Practicing

Coach Larry Siemering's baseball squad has been rapidly whipping into shape these past two weeks. There is a fine schedule lined up against some of the best teams in this section of the country, including Camp Shoemaker's fine ball club, and everything points toward a better than average season.

This is the second season that a baseball team has represented the College of the Pacific on the diamond. In 1944 we were represented by a fair club made up mostly of Marine trainees. None of last year's men are left this season, however, and Coach Siemering is starting off with an entirely new group of men, but most of these men are far from new to the game.

LOTS OF TALENT

There's John Camicia, a short-stop who has played a good deal of fast ball in and around Stockton; Frank Burkett, a second baseman and a ball player with a lot of the savvy that counts in the clutches; Frank Boyle, a pitcher with a good deal of experience and a man to be counted on; and "Act" Oestrich, a pitcher who was all So. California when he pitched for Englewood High in '41 and '42. These men along with George Segale and "Red" Hardin form a strong nucleus around which to build the team.

To these add catchers Mothorn, Galbraith and Krukow; pitchers Edwards, Able, Griffin and Roberts; infielders Easton, Wilson, Grant, Thompson, Harris and Chalmers; and outfielders Clegg, Jordan, Bondurant, McInnerney and Reno, and you have the makings of a winning ball club.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

The opening game will be played with Camp Parks at that base on the 21st of March. The schedule calls for two games a week until May 26.

The tentative schedule is:

- March:
21—Camp Parks—there
24—Shoemaker—there

TENNIS OUTLOOK

Tennis probably presents the brightest picture of the spring season. Bolstered by veterans of either past Tiger squads or tennis teams of other schools, the Berner racketmen will probably give any competition they face a tough battle.

On the diamond coach Larry Siemering is having a rough time whipping the hopefuls of swat and pitch into anything resembling nine men going through the motions of what is called the great American game. However, there is probably not a college team in the country who could beat a sand-lot baseball club this early in the season. It is too soon to pass judgment on the willing workers of Coach Larry.

FINE FIGURES

Sports Personalities . . .

As long as the present pen-push-er continues to scribble this column it will be the refuge for forgotten athletes and second string bench-warmers. If you want to read about the stars and record breakers just peruse the other stories on this page. The above is no reflection on the athletes interviewed below—they are all inexperienced, hardworking, and hopeful—they may yet make the headlines.

Bob McKim, cartoon-crazy art editor of the Pacific Weekly, is turning his talents toward racket swinging this spring. The San Mateo swatter is a 5' 10", Chinese food-loving, mathematics major who hopes to volley and rally his way to some sort of first-bounce fame this season. Your columnist remembers Bob best for his "You ought to pay me first" cartoon.

Big Dick Zeigler, sometimes—but not often—known as the San Diego sensation, is out broad-jumping just as far as he can for

Tiger Trackmen Start Practice; Outlook Good

All spring sports are starting with a great flourish and track is no exception. If you should happen by Baxter Stadium one of these brisk spring evenings you will find the College boys, both Navy and Civilian, working hard to get into condition for their respective events. They have a lot of hard work to do to condition themselves for the first meet which is only a few weeks in the future.

SMALL TURNOUT

Although the turnout is not as large as Pacific has had in the preceding seasons, we can make no accurate statement about the squad's chances until the first meet or two. We hope to be pleasantly surprised and see them burn the cinders for Pacific.

The Tigers star basketball center Stan Reams has turned out for the shotput this spring. Stan could do some flashy things with a basketball; let's hope he is equally skillful with the sixteen-pound shot. He says it really takes the energy to put that sixteen-pound chunk of alloy.

BARRIER JUMPERS

Lanky Art Cody may seem somewhat clumsy but reports says that he can really lift the old carcass over the high jump bar. He attended the Abraham Lincoln High School in San Francisco last year where he set a record of 6' 2½" for that school.

On the cinders in the 120 yard high hurdle event will probably be Bob Innis, who last ran for the fame of his Alma Mater, C. K. McClatchy High School in Sacramento. Bob made a good showing in high school, and should do well in his first year of college competition.

NEW TALENT

Rex McVicker, who hails from the bay area, will be a good bet on the 440 season. This is Rex's first year in college, however, he has speed and endurance which may bring him some victories.

"Arkansas" Schroeder, a tall, rugged lad from Barracks "A" is training to throw the discus and javelin. He has the brawn and through instruction from Coach Jackson he may be able to perfect his form sufficiently to make a good showing.

POLE VAULT ACE

Ray Krink, a discharge from Marines, shows good prospects for the pole vault. Reports are that he kicked 12' 6" in high school and he should make quite an improvement over that.

Ken Sharp a Navy boy with a good set of legs will probably run the sprints for the Tigers this year. He has had previous track experience which will help a great deal.

We can't predict anything about Pacific's track team; but we can hope for the best.

track coach Earl Jackson. So far, Dick's main contribution to American life is his attempt to support (by purchase and consumption) the Hi-Ho cracker company and the Skippy Peanut Butter producers.

Cambodia is the richest country of the Far East in ancient monuments, best known of which are the ruins of Angkor.

Swim Coach Chris Kjeldsen

Fifteen Swimmers Greet Kjeldsen As Swimming Gets Under Way

Coach Chris Kjeldsen's mermen, boasting one returning letterman in Ben Holt, can now be seen going through their paces in the local tank each afternoon. There are fifteen men out for the team at the present time, and there is a need for more sealions. The schedule has not been rounded out as yet and thus is not presentable at this early date. The team has possibilities, which can be seen in a fashion after one week's training.

MALE AND FEMALE

Holt was one of the leading backstrokers on last year's swim team, and Kjeldsen is planning to use him in this event come swim-meet time.

A despairing factor is the fact that "the terrible Sweed" can't use the outstanding ability of Helen Graham. Helen, being a girl, is ineligible for the men's events, but Kjeldsen hopes to enter her when possible. Helen's specialties lie in the speeds, and she is rated as one of the top feminine swimmers on the coast.

COMPETITIONS

The team is planning on meeting neighborhood high schools for practice meets. Their schedule will probably include meets with nearby service teams. Two let-downs came when the news arrived that University of California does not have a swimming team this season, and that a meet with the San Francisco Olympic Club had to be cancelled because the Clubbers can not travel.

In the past there has always been more than one returning letterman plus new material, but this season things have changed in this respect. We are sure, nevertheless, that Coach Kjeldsen will do a fine job in bringing out the best in his present prospects.

The purest Spanish spoken in South America is said to be that of Bogota, Colombia.

Racketeers Get Hot On Courts

With the semester beginning, Pacific's slingers of the cat gut, the tennis players and tryoutees, have made their appearance on the courts; in effect, the open season on tennis balls started this last week. By Friday, most of the challenge matches were organized and were being played off by the racket hopefuls.

Some of last season's old faithfuls are back as well as many new men. Back from last year are Arnie Beisser and Jim Ritter. New faces seen on the courts are Hamlin, Dow, Mundt, MacDonald, Swift, Gulick, Carfagni, Taylor, Raney, Marlowe, McKim, Heilman, Carman, and Zeoli.

MATCHES SCHEDULED

Of the new-comers the two outstanding players are Don Swift and Bill Mundt. Two other boys who are regarded as sure shots to play lots of matches are Don Mathews and Dan Hamlin.

Coach Gladys Berner has announced that the Tiger squad will engage the Stockton Tennis club in a match next Saturday. Although the line-up is neither definite or complete, Arnie Beiser is sure to start as top man for the Pacific unit. Also tentatively scheduled for playing positions are Mundt, Ritter, Mathews, and Swift.

Women's Athletic Ass'n Plans Girls Sports for Semester

At two meetings, held in the Auditorium at 12:55 and 4:30 on Wednesday, the Women's Athletic Association laid plans for forthcoming girls sports and events. Intramural, inter-house, and even inter-college contests were discussed. Committees for the organization of the W.A. A. were announced.

In charge of basketball is Norma Brau; badminton, Jean Inwood; golf, Charlotte Mercereau; tennis, Pat Tyler; softball, Marie Arbios; swimming, Rosemarie Hale; volley ball, Stella Spanos; programs and social chairman, Helen Coutes; awards chairman, Jean Spangle; constitution and parliamentarian, Earlene Waters.

Present officers in the Women's Athletic Association are: President, Helen Graham; Vice-President, Helen Arbios; Secretary, Dorothy Emigh; Treasurer, Clara

TRADE WINDS

Last week amid the confusion of registration, there was chatter floating around about who did what during our ten days off from school.

Bev Munro did a little constructive work at home in the form of painting the breakfast-nook and bathrooms. She finished off her vacation by a trip to San Francisco.

Carolyn Bennetson was another who stayed in town most of the time as her mother was in the hospital and she had the job of keeping house. A week-end at Santa Cruz wound up her vacation.

GAD ABOUTS

On the other hand, we have those lucky individuals that went out of town for the ten days. So was the case of Art Graf and Jimmy Haskell who went to Los Angeles and had a wonderful time doing everything and seeing everything including Warner Brothers Studio.

Thyra June Jeffery was a sun

Ruiz; and Publicity Chairman, Peggy Fronfield.

Besides the corps of officers the WAA has representatives from each living group on campus and from other organized coeds groups. The representatives are, from Alpha Theta Tau, Marie Arbios and Peggy Fronfield; Co-op, Peggy Gibson, and Alice Blayne; Epsilon Lambda Sigma, Ellen Yocum and Dorothy Emigh; Freshman Hall, Gail Monroe, and Pat Tyler; Pi Kappa Epsilon, Clara Shecham; Sophomore Hall, Mildred Griffin; Tau Gamma and Betty Hughes; Tau Kappa Kappa, Betty Declusin and Clara Ruiz; Women's Hall, Jeanne Inwood and Pat Wise.

The Women's Athletic Association is trying to bring girls sports back to the high place they have had in former years, in campus activities. This effort can be accomplished if the officers and representatives of this group can have the support of the girls on campus.

the fleet air arm over the homeland.

GERMANY

On the Rhine front, it seems that the bridgehead over the river is secure and that the Ruhr is now open to a mass allied invasion. Too, there was a possibility that a ne winvasion would be launched at the northwest coast of the Reich, probably led by Field Marshal Montgomery. Hints of this were given in recent Churchill speeches.

In the east, the Russians are getting ready for their final strike against tottering Berlin by endangering the German left flank in Pomerania and near the Stettin area. Too, the old fortress of Kustrin was captured by the Red Army putting them about 30 plus miles from the German capitol.

PEACE

On the various Peace Fronts, things seemed to be rolling well. In the Mexico confab, the delegates seem to have arrived at some sort of a scheme for post-war cooperation, which however would be very weak without Argentina's concurrence, and have taken measures to keep down intra-American strife. However, the main points will have to wait until the San Francisco conference next month. As for that meeting, plans are shaping up, with 39 nations invited to attend. Biggest topic on the agenda will be the final settling of the voting arrangement and the establishment of a working Security Council.

WELCOME, FROSH, TO C. O. P. TRADITIONS

Miss Helen Graham, a member of Alpha Theta Tau sorority, is president of the Sophomore class.

Mr. Lyman Burk, head yell leader for C.O.P., is president of the Freshman class.

Cooperation is Keynote Soph. Prexy States

Since the Sophomore and the Freshman classes have not been organized for three years, the class traditions and spirit have been somewhat lost along the wayside. We have decided that the enthusiasm and school spirit have been lost long enough, so we are organizing our classes once again to create new activity.

COMBINED EFFORTS

The Sophomore and Freshman classes are combining their efforts this semester to gain the common goal of—new campus activity. We plan to bring back what traditions we can, but without the cooperation of the two classes nothing can be done.

COMPLETE COOPERATION

We of the Sophomore class cannot pretend to enforce any laws governing Freshman traditions.

COP Numbers 369

With only partial figures in, the total registration of the College of the Pacific stands at 234 civilian enrollees. Too, there are 135 Navy V-12 students on the campus, although some of these are registered under the rolls of the Stockton Junior College. However, new enrollments to COP are expected so that the final figure has not yet been determined. These amounts were released from the registrar's office yesterday.

The only way these activities and traditions can be put into effect is by complete cooperation of the two classes.

EVERYBODY PITCH!

We all want this to be the new beginning of the long celebrated College of the Pacific "Country Club", so let's all get in and pitch to create some real excitement this semester.

HELEN GRAHAM
President of the Sophomore Class

THE COMMUNITY SPIRIT

We, the present students of Pacific, carry with us a trust. We know that every American fighting on strange seas or foreign lands trusts that a nucleus of his people are training to continue and improve the American dream.

We've learned that education is more than the collecting of facts; that college is a place to prepare ourselves to be rational, productive humans. Because colleges are the latest stages between training for and participating in life we can see that we should take with us a community spirit when we leave school. We should be able to perform the social graces and get along with one another.

Perhaps our memories need stirring up. Have we forgotten the PSA, the SCA or the AWS? Have navy trainees been so hard pressed academically that their social life has been limited to off campus activities? Yes, we've been neglecting ourselves socially, but we have been making plans and devising remedies. We can give real PSA support to our athletic teams, we can alternate our informal Friday night dances between the SCA and "under the stars" on the amphitheatre's stage, we can enjoy the forthcoming night swimming, we can give or lend records to our social hall and make it a place we all like, we can be members of the SCA and make it a rendezvous for relaxation during the week, in other words, we can make Pacific a live community. Here are four beautiful months, let's make them count.

PACIFIC HAIL

From e'er the rugged mountains standing high;
From out the broad low valleys,
'Neath the sky:
Our Alma Mater calls,
We cannot fail,
Our voices blend in praise
Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!
Long may her flaming torch
Give out its light;
Long may her spirit guide us
In the right;
To her we pledge our hearts,
We dare not fail;
To her we raise our song,
Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!

These restrictions would then continue in effect until Friday, April 27th.

THE RESTRICTIONS

 2. Dinks for the boys.
 3. No high school pins, emblems, rings, or sweaters.
 4. No cords or jeans for Freshmen.

Frosh Officers Present Plans to New Students

There's a little matter I'd like to discuss with you. It's this matter of Freshman restrictions. They weren't enforced for a few semesters because of two reasons. There was a shortage of civilian men for one thing. Another barrier was a state law forbidding hacks or embarrassment as a way of enforcing restrictions. The state law still exists and the sophomores can't paddle you if they find you without a "Dink" nor can they "pants" you when you are seen wearing Cords or Levis. But everyone I've talked to, including low Freshmen, wants restrictions for Freshmen.

Remember this gang, Your officers can only instigate ideas and spirit. Whether they work or not is up to you. A group of representatives, from the various living groups and students living off campus, decided on these restrictions. Think them over. Talk them over. Next Thursday in assembly you'll have a chance to say what you think about them.
