I felt quite cheered about her she seemed to enjoy the rest and quiet here. very much and Annie says seemed better for it after she went home, we had an splendid visit.

Annie brought the picture the

it, she goes and points to it as it lies on the table and when allowed to take it she fairly rains kisses on it make smack after smack on it and giggles and laughs as if her joy was complete. She can say almost any single word and has just commenced putting two together. ~~She~~ she is standing looking out of the window and just surprised us by saying "nigger" when a colored man went by. I did not know that she knew the name nigger.

I was very much interested in the Phillips news which you ~~mentioned~~ mentioned, we do not take the Phillips paper now. Did you hear of Lottie Jackson's marriage and of Mrs Bryans death?
I am glad you are all better again. I hope you may continue in health. I wish ~~you~~ I could visit you in Portugal this year and how I wish I could see you again.

Dear Mary and Willis:-

I have been intending to write to you ever since Annie came which was on the 9th inst. but the days have seemed full of work and talk until now. You know she brought us our longed for picture and I have wanted to tell you my thanks very much. I think it looks very much as I expected it to look from recollection of it as you commenced it in Phillips, and I shall always be exceedingly glad to possess it. I like the upper part of the face better than the lower and I think that can be made right when you make us the visit of which you wrote in your last letter. the passage looks rather too narrow I think.

 The work is beautiful and I can easily imagine the loving carefulness you bestowed upon it.

Oh Mary you are always associated in my mind with these blissful days of possession and these sad sad days, and I think gratefully of you and Willie too. But I have come to think very calmly of dear little Grace for as time passes, it becomes more and more a reality that she is not dead but gone before and that she is not far away but very near, and I sometimes seem to feel her close beside me. I do not believe the spirit world is half so far away as we used to imagine and I think death only takes the veil from our mortal eyes, that we may see as we are seen. Oh how I would enjoy a talk with you.

Will you want to hear about Annie she is certainly far from well but has perfect assurance of returning health and so is very hopeful. I have no doubt she will gain rapidly, I suppose she will write for herself.
 She looks very much as she always does. You asked about Maggie, she looked better I thought than when I last saw her in Wis. and
