

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1885-03-05

Letter from Annie L. Muir to John Muir, 1885 Mar 5.

Annie L. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Annie L., "Letter from Annie L. Muir to John Muir, 1885 Mar 5." (1885). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1589.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1589>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[47]

has been quite sick. She is in her usual health again - has been staying with Sarah for several weeks - when I am sure she had the best of care - Father's health has been very good all winter; but he is quite feverish, and keeps his bed constantly. He has not been down stairs since the 3rd of last September. He is very happy, however, and says he believes himself to be the happiest man living -

Joanna & family are well with the exception of colds. Please write soon to your sister Annie L. W.

[1]

Kansas City, Mo.

Joanna sends love to you and to your family. We hope to see you all soon.

129 West 6th St.
March 5 - 1855

Dear Brother John -

I have been looking for a letter from you for some time but as none comes I will write again to you.

We are very anxious to hear of your health. You have not yet given us any idea of the nature of your difficulty.

We would be very glad to hear something more definite about yourself -

With regard to my own health, I am happy to say that I continue to improve rather than otherwise, notwithstanding the very trying spring weather which we are now leaving here.

Almost all are suffering from colds.

I think of returning to Wisconsin next month if all is favorable, and it will not interfere with your plans. Can you just as well start from Portage as from this place, on your return trip to Cal.?

I judge from appearances that it will be mid-summer before you will be likely to be ready to return, if so I would like to spend the winter-visit months at home. It is already one and one half years since I left Wisconsin.

I was very sorry to learn from Sarah, that Mother