

1885-09-01

Letter from J[ohn] Strentzel to [John Muir], 1885 Sep 1.

John Strentzel

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Strentzel, John, "Letter from J[ohn] Strentzel to [John Muir], 1885 Sep 1." (1885). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1626.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1626>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Dr John Brewster

Marina del Rey, California

1 Sept. 1885.

Dear John
 your Postal Card to hand yesterday from which it appears that gran does not grow under your feet at this rate of proceeding Louis Mission yesterday adds to Postage possibly may reach you.

Manda nursing baby better & is bright as ever. Goma improving measurably.

Carter took 257 bbs of. designs to finish end week by picking balam vicars - grapes ripening fairly - Mincab should be fair by 10 d. - ship some quinces. Albin keeps pushing scratching enough 01198.

to cover rays - weather heavy indication of early rain.

Hope you can subdue your rebellious Stomach & free from pain take hold of that Indian pony & career over the familiar haunts of your working days & cut some pleasure in the autumnal woods gaining some fresh colors for future wood painting.

Affectionately

J. Strutz

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page, consisting of several lines of cursive script.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page, including the name "Wanda Muir".