My Dear Brodjan

Yours of 28 inst just arrived we are satisfied the use you are making of the money, although we know nothing of the prospects of your city in the near future.

If you get your information on that ~~it~~ see from a reliable source we think by all means to see <sup>you should</sup> it, but in all your purchases be sure get an abstract of title I have it examined by a reliable lawyer

I have today written to John that ~~we~~ had sent you $400.<sup>00</sup> & that as you had a first class place for other $400.<sup>00</sup> he must according to agreement with me send you off for that amount immediately on receipt of my letter. I have told him that you would get refusal of it long enough barely for the time the mail could be <sup>carried</sup> to Cal & ret to Lincoln

In your letter you made no reference to the letter I wrote you a week ago (in pencil)

Still in order to get John to send his money I have written him that you agreed to it "Silence from Consent" you know, but would rather have you say whether the terms are just or not. Remember me to your family you should see
