Pacific Weekly Interviews Wolfe Regarding Constitutional Convention

By JOHN APGAR

In an interview with a Pacific Weekly reporter, Dan Wolfe, head of the campus' Constitutional Rights Committee described the sentiments that led to the proposal of a convention.

Q—Do you really think that the proposals resulting from the present Senate Constitutional Revision Committee would be unacceptable to the student body?

A—"The students may not be willing to accept the committee's proposals, at least the required 75% of them may not, if those proposals are formulated without direct student participation. Compromise, something necessary in forming such a document, is absent when a committee proposes the constitution and a student body only votes on the proposal. A committee-proposed constitution can only be rejected in its entirety by those students who object to any feature of it. They never have been given the opportunity through a representative to either suggest modification or continually influence its construction."

Q—To obtain this opportunity of consultation among the whole student body aren't you dragging in what might be too many people?

A—"I feel a diversity of the students is both a necessity and an asset. Such diversification of theory is not available to a small committee appointed from one source. We must secure a sizable group of elected, responsible individuals which in this diversity and quality is not an easy mark for any one theory but a penetrating test for all."

Q—When can a body of this "diversity" and size be organized?

A—"The opposition to the Convention seems to feel that the sooner a constitution is thrown together the happier everyone will be. I disagree. The amount of time the Convention takes to frame a worthy document is completely up to the Convention. I'm

Fernandel And Cow On 'Y' Screen Tonight

Pacific's Cinema Arts Festival continues tonight presenting a comedy with French film star Fernandel, The Cow and I.

During World War II, a French soldier escaped from a German prison farm by stealing one of the cows and walking 400 miles to the border leading the cow and carrying a milk pail to allay suspicion. This film is based on that escape.

Be Gone Dull Care, a short film of art work painted directly onto the film itself accompanied by a jazz soundtrack, precedes The Cow and I.

76 Men To Present Dance In The Quads

Quadrangle F, will present a dance tonight following the first performance of the Brothers Four.

From 9-12:30 in the Quadrangle Dining Hall all students are invited, free of charge, to dance in casual dress.

Group To Debate Against Referendum; Five Points On Keeping Status Quo

By CHRIS SCHOTT

Pacific students will vote on a referendum on December 12th which will in one way or another change the manner in which they receive their next student government constitution. At present, a committee of six people, headed by a member of the PSA Senate are working on the new constitution. Formal writing has not begun because the committee is still attempting to discover what the students want in their new government. Approximately two more meetings, which will be open to all students, are planned before actual writing begins.

Those students who are not in favor of the referendum base their decision on the following reasons. First, the group, which is headed by Charlotte Maxwell, feels there is a problem of time. Both those supporting the measure and those opposed to it want the new constitution finished by Spring elections. The reasons for this are that Raymond College is not provided for in the present constitution and neither will Covell College be.

The group opposed to the measure feels that there is little chance of finding a time when thirty people could all get together. Second, this group feels that it would be impossible to elect the convention officers before Christmas as there are only two days between the election and vacation. Following Christmas there is Dead Week and final exams both of which would prevent work. If the convention finally did meet after semester break, the representatives would have to be informed of constitutional procedure and the old committee would need time to present the data it has gathered during the last year and one-half. Following this, the convention will have to debate its own findings and finally, write the constitution.

Third, the opposing group feels that as all students are asked to contribute their ideas to the present committee, the formation of a committee would be just a change of leadership. That is, all those who might participate in the convention, have the same opportunity to participate under the present arrangement.

Fourth, the opposition believes that as all six of the present committee members have had experience in student government or in forming another constitu-

Brothers Four Concert Tonight, 7:30, 9:15

The Brothers Four, strangers when they met a few years ago as students at the University of Washington, now rate as the most popular singing act in the country with the college set.

The four comedy troubadours will give two concerts at the University of the Pacific tonight. All seats will be reserved for the conservatory performances.

The young intellectuals, all tapped for membership in Phi Gamma Delta, national social fraternity, discovered they had a mutual love for music and singing. They all are natives of the Seattle area, and before their meeting at the fraternity house, had no show business ambitions. Each had a career in mind. For Mike Kirkland, medicine; for Dick Foley, engineering; for John Paine, law, and for Bob Flick, radio and TV management.

Since their beginning when they played at parties "for kicks," they have been in orbit around the college campuses of this country and Canada for the past couple years, and are being tapped for more and more network TV work. Their records, beginning with "Greenfields," which was number one on the national list, have achieved tremendous popularity.

Reservations are available at Miracle Music in Stockton at $2.00 for students, $2.50 for adults.

Deadline for National Defense Education Act Loan Application for the spring semester is December 7, 1962. Applications may be obtained from the Student Personnel Office, Room 109, Administration building.

Debaters Capture West Coast Victory; Three Firsts Sweep Tournament

The Pacific debaters chalked up yet another victory as they captured sweepstakes at the giant Western States Speech Association tournament held at San Fernando State during Thanksgiving vacation. Ten students, with the aid of Coach Paul Winters and Steve Collins, triumphed over the competition presented by 650 students from 60 colleges in nine western states.

Pacific placed ten finalists and went on to win three first and three third place awards. The victories were highlighted by Ginny Kahle and Judy Ross' win in women's debate. Miss Kahle also won first in interpretative reading. Other award winners were, Raoul Kennedy first in oratory, Weldon Moss third in both interp and oratory, and Ginny Kerber third in women's oratory.

The debate team of Doug Pipes and Raoul Kennedy made finals. Kennedy also made finals in impromptu speaking while Roger Randall did so in extemp and impromptu.

The Kahle-Ross victory was especially significant since this was the first time the girls had ever debated together. It was also Ginny Kahle's last college tournament, so the win was a fitting end to an almost unbelievable string of successes. For Judy Ross, it was the first time she had debated in senior division but the freshman star appears well able to meet the competition.

The Pacific team had a total of 52 sweepstakes points while the nearest competitor, Loyola had 32.

The team is now preparing for next week's tournament at San Francisco State which will feature cross examination debate.

Open Podium Idea Merits Consideration

By HERB BOLZ

In the last edition of the Weekly, a student quizzed about needed campus changes suggested the establishment of an open podium to enable the students to express themselves freely. This is a grave proposal, and serious and objective consideration must be given to the idea and its vast potentialities and far-reaching ramifications.

First, this proposal has ample historical justification as shown by Hyde Park in London and Persian Square in Los Angeles. Therefore, it is apparent that this is no suspicious product of modern liberal woolly thinking, but rather an idea solidly grounded in precedent.

Second, with the advent of cool weather, it is obvious that the considerable amount of hot air that would inevitably be generated would be of substantial aid in heating the campus.

However, this suggestion, being of such momentous import, merits close examination. Several keen, penetrating, Socratic questions must be asked of this idea. For example, does "open" mean free and above board or does it mean unprotected? If the latter

Inter-church Program Airs Diverse Views Of Present Liturgy

Diverse views of the place of the liturgy in Christian worship will be aired by four authorities at the second in a series of inter-church programs at the Top of the Y this Sunday. The program follows a supper at 6 o'clock.

On the panel are Dr. Massey Shepherd, Dr. Arthur Manard, Fr. James DeGroot, and Mr. David Beebe. Dr. Shepherd is considered the chief living authority on worship practices in the Anglican Church. Dr. Maynard is chairman of the UOP Bible and religion department. Fr. DeGroot is Chaplain to the UOP Newman Club. Mr. Beebe is a graduate student in liturgics at the Pacific School of Religion.

Interest in the subject of liturgy on this campus has been sparked this semester by the change in the format of the Tuesday Chapel services.

The program Sunday is sponsored by various groups, including Central and Grace Methodist Church Wesleyan Fellowships, the Methodist Student Movement, the Newman Club, the Plymouth Fel-

Sophomore Gets $400 GM Safety Scholarship

Sophomore Jeannette Arburua, 18, was awarded a scholarship of $400 by General Motors for her participation in 4-H Club safety programs in Bakersfield, her home.

Miss Arburua was one of eight national winners in the 4-H safety program. She returned to campus yesterday from Chicago, Ill., where she received the award from the National 4-H Club Congress.

A home economics major, Miss Arburua is a resident of Covell Hall.

Miller Analogies Test For Grad Students

The Miller Analogies Test will be given Tuesday, December 4, at 4 o'clock in Room 212, Owen Hall, the office of Dr. Jay W. Reeve.

Those wishing to take the test should notify Dean Willie N. Potter at the Graduate Office, Room 113, Administration Building, as soon as possible. The examination fee of $2.00 should be paid in advance to the Business Office, and the receipt shown to Dr. Reeve on admission to the examination.

UOP Cooperates In JC Transfer Study

Since May, 1962, the University of the Pacific has been cooperating with the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the University of California at Berkeley in conducting a survey concerning students who transfer from junior colleges to senior colleges. Miss Ellen Deering, registrar, and Carl Stutzman, study coordinator, have been assembling the requested information for the overall study director at Berkeley, Dr. Dorothy Knoell. Pacific recently received a letter commending the college on its high degree of cooperation.

WIDE RANGE

Sponsored by the Association of College Registrars and Admissions Officers, The Association of American Colleges, and The American Association of Junior Colleges, the study is designed to gather a large quantity of information concerning a wide range of aspects of the transfer student. The study is not limited to grades; it includes such things as extra-curricular activities, and family background.

Forty senior colleges across the nation in states having strong junior college programs are taking part in the study.

'SAMPLE STUDENTS'

Thirty-three 1962 graduates were chosen as a random sample of UOP students. This group, including both transfer students and regular students, filled out a ten page questionnaire.

Piano Major To Give Conservatory Recital

Lynn Criegler, junior piano major, will present a recital in the conservatory auditorium Sunday, December 2, at 4 p.m. Selections by Schubert, Scarlatti and Bartok will be featured.

Lynn was soloist in eleven concerts with the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra of Washington D.C., and soloist with The Central Methodist College Orchestra in Fayette, Mo. Presently he is the organist at the local First Unitarian Church.

In all state music contests he has entered, he has received superior ratings. He was the winner of the St. Louis Artists' Auditions in 1959 and as a high school man he became a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity, a university or college honor.

Everyone Welcome At Covell Christmas Tea

Covell Hall will be transformed into "Christmas in Many Lands" for the traditional Covell Christmas Tea, Sunday, December 2, from 2-4 P.M. Bare walls will become artful murals depicting the country each section has chosen to represent. Everyone is welcome to attend the tea, which will be a formal affair. Guests are invited to wander through the dorm on a planned route, assisted by guides, and then descend to the dining room for tea and cookies.

Members of the faculty will judge each section to determine which will win the $10 prize for the best-decorated section. Faculty wives will assist with the pouring of the tea.

WAVE Recruiter Visits Covell Hall

Lieut. Nancy L. Denton, WAVE recruiting officer for Northern California, Nevada, and Utah, will be at Covell Hall today to talk to students concerning the Navy WAVE officer program. Miss Denton is a UOP graduate.

To qualify for a commission a young woman must be a U. S. citizen, between the ages of 20 and 27, and a college graduate.

As one of the biggest events of the year for Covell, the tea helps to create much dorm unity, according to Melinda Cardoza, general chairman of the tea, for everyone works very hard to make the tea a success.

The Brothers Four profits will bring Peter, Paul & Mary here for Mardi Gras.

Colliver Lectureship

The Roles Of Church And State Discussed By Colliver Speakers

Church and State in the Responsible Society was the theme of the sixth annual George H. Colliver Lectureship which was held Nov. 26, 27, and 28. The 1962 lecturer was Dr. Walter G. Muelder, dean of Boston University School of Theology and professor of social ethics.

The first of the sessions began at 7:45 Monday evening with a program by the Stagg High School A Cappella Choir. Dr. Muelder then began his lecture, "The Nature and Function of Church-State Relations." His topic was concerned specifically with church-state relations in America, which, he stated, sometimes cooperate and sometimes compete.

Following the lecture, President Burns introduced Father Eugene J. Boyle and Dr. Franklin H. Littell who questioned Dr. Muelder on points of the lecture and his opinions on related matters. Questions from the audience were welcomed.

"Freedom, Welfare, and Days of Rest" was the title of Dean Walter G. Muelder's talk on Tuesday, November 27. This lecture was the second in the Colliver Lectureship series. Dean Muelder discussed the relationship of the church and the state in the areas of freedom, social welfare, and the "day of rest" laws.

Muelder began by saying that there is no single doctrine of the church-state relationship, but that the main consensus of opinion is that the government should not restrict the freedom of the church, since freedom is rooted in a covenant with God which existed long before any governmental laws came into being.

A relationship of cooperation, not competition, should be established between church and state.

The problem of financing church-related social welfare agencies is a critical issue in the church-state relationship according to Muelder. He said that the church's role in social welfare appears to be increasingly vague because it is contributing less to welfare, and is becoming of minor importance.

Muelder went on to discuss the "day of rest" laws, which are the laws prohibiting stores and businesses to be open on Sunday. Although a common day of rest is beneficial to health and also gives an opportunity for social fellowship, the laws were originally established for religious purposes, which again violates the church's freedom from government.

Fraternity Pledges Get Formal Invitation Sun.

Fraternity initiations will be held November 31 in a formal chapel ceremony. The week preceding, the pledges have been rather informally initiated through a series of possibly unpleasant ceremonies; the closed chapel service on Sunday will formally complete their initiation requirements and the pledges will become active fraternity members.

Tri-Delta Sorority Sponsors An Art Exhibit On Dec. 4

Tri-Delta is sponsoring an art exhibit to be held from Dec. 4 to 11 at the sorority house. All UOP students are invited to enter their art work. If they wish, they may also put it up for sale. The paintings should be framed or matted and submitted to the Tri-Delta house no later than Dec. 1st.

HAWAII

Mrs. Edith S. Adkins, Covell Hall housemother, for the fifth consecutive year has been appointed campus representative of Howard Tours, the original college and travel program for the University of Hawaii summer session and to the Pacific. Applications for 1963 are now being accepted by her at Covell Hall—telephone HO 6-3581.

Next summer's tour of 56 days to Hawaii costs $589, plus $9 tax. This price includes roundtrip jet between the West Coast and Hawaii, campus residence, and the most diversified itinerary of dinners, parties, shows, cruises, sightseeing events, beach activities, and cultural entertainment plus all necessary tour services.

Waikiki apartment living, steamship passage, and visits to Neighbor Islands are available at adjusted tour rates. Steamship travel, however, will be at a premium. Therefore, interested travelers should apply early to protect their reservations. 1963 will be the "Big Summer in Hawaii" because this is the biennial year of the world famous Trans-Pacific Yacht Race from Los Angeles to Hawaii, with everybody sharing in the extra fun and added excitement.

In addition to Hawaii, Howard Tours offers a 67-day study program to the Orient and another study tour of 45 days around South America. Both are San Francisco State College summer session study tours offering six upper division university credits. College men and women may call MRS. ADKINS for further information.

Dinner Dance Saturday

The annual Phi Delta Chi winter formal will be held this year at the Ambassador Hotel on Friday, December 1. Dinner will be served before the dance, and the Pete Devonis band will furnish music from 8-1, reports Gary Nelson, chairman of the dance. The formal will be decorated in a Christmas theme. Chaperones will be Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Rowland, Dean of the School of Pharmacy; Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Bulard; and Dr. Donald Barker.

Gayton and Trekell Are New Sorority Favorites

Delta Delta Delta and Delta Gamma have each announced their new "dream men" for this year. Tri Delta's 'Delta Dream Man' is Tom Gayton, and the Delta Gamma Anchor Man is Howie Trekell.

Tom Gayton, a member of Phi Sigma Kappa, was crowned at the Tri-Delta fall formal on October 26. Tom is a Senior from Palos Verdes, and is majoring in business administration. He replaces Steve Hamilton, last year's Dream Man.

Howie Trekell is also a Phi Sigma Kappa. He was crowned at the Delta Gamma pledge dance on November 9. Howie is an English major from Belmont. He follows last year's Anchor Man, Truman Gates.

Open Podium Idea

meaning is intended, what about the fact that the speaker's feet will show? This is in direct contrast to the time-honored custom of hiding the speaker's legs present in the status quo. Furthermore, what about the speaker's exposure to certain meteorological phenomena known colloquially as wind, rain, and hail? Perhaps the suggestion of a closed podium is worthy of equal consideration.

Therefore, it is clearly seen that upon serious and objective scrutiny that several inherent flaws are present in the open podium proposal and that, thusly, it absolutely cannot be approved in good conscience.

Profits from the sale of tickets for the Brothers Four concert will go toward bringing Peter, Paul and Mary to UOP for Mardi Gras.

FROM MOTOR'S MOUTH

Tigers Wind Up 50-50 Season;
Basketball Events Coming Next

The Pacific Tigers finished 5-5 after their 18-13 loss to Fresno State. The last three games, all losses by the way, were the result of "gifts." By gifts, I mean fumbles and a porous pass defense. Had this been changed, the season could have been possibly 7-3 instead of 5-5. These "ifs" did not happen and the Tigers ended up with a so-so season. My congrats to John Rohde and Tiny Campora who did a real fine job.

PRO PLAYERS

Did you know that the University of Pacific has slipped among the players offered to the professional ranks? Notre Dame is the leader with 18 men, mostly from Leahy and Brennan regimes . . . Ohio State is second with 13, followed by U.S.C. with 12, and UOP, Pittsburgh, Illinois, Michigan State, Georgia, Mississippi, and Maryland with 10 each.

The D.U.-Phi Sig game ended up with DU winning 20-6. DU scored once in the 2nd quarter on a pass from Jud Robinson to Kenny Kjeldsen. In the 4th quarter, Phi Sig came back within one point when Floyd Lytle hit Walt Wright with a TD pass, to make it 7-6. DU capitalized in a 4th down situation late in the 4th quarter, when Jud Robinson again hit on a pass to Truman Gates good for 30 yards and 14-6. Later on Gates intercepted a pass and Robinson hit Gary Brinck for 20-6, and the championship is DU's for the second year in a row. Good blocking and fine spirit was exhibited by both houses in the annual do-or-die battle. My congrats, Jud!

Basketball is just one week away for the Tigers who will appear in the Camellia Bowl tournament Dec. 5-6 at Sacramento. The tentative starting lineup appears to have Leo Middleton at center, Bill Wilson and Charles Stramber at the forwards, and Dick Davey and Jack Schalow at guards. The team is young with only one senior, ten juniors, and four sophomores.

For the first time, due to lack of freshman interest, the Tigers will sponsor a junior varsity under the guidance of John Nicholls. Composed of football and fraternity men who once played high school and junior college ball, they should offer stiff competition to the other freshman teams in the league.

F.S.C. Nips Tigers, 18 to 13;
1962 Football Season Closes

By JUD ROBINSON

Well, it's all over; the F.S.C. Bulldogs continued their mastery over the UOP Tigers and sent them down to their fourth and final defeat by the score of 18-13. Thus, what started out to be a wonderful year ended with four defeats in the last five games, and a meager 5-5 record.

The Bulldogs, behind the leadership of Jon Anavo, built up a 13-0 lead in the early minutes of the third period and then fought for their lives as the Tigers, playing their final game of the season, waged a comeback.

Fumbles and pass interceptions continued to haunt the Tigers throughout the game. The Bulldogs got a break in the opening kickoff, when the ball, bounding away from Pacific end Ted Watkins and squirting away from the grasp of three or four players, was recovered by Jim Long of the Bulldogs. Four plays later, the Bulldogs used a double reverse from Anavo to Knocke to Long to score, and Aaron Youngblood blocked the kick for 6-0, Bulldogs. The Tigers took the kickoff and marched to F.S.C.'s 28, where the Bulldogs held on downs and took over. After eleven plays, Grover Morris tallied the second score from the one, and it was 12-0, Bulldogs. The pass conversion attempt was batted down.

UOP kicked off and it took the Bulldogs just ten plays to score with Jim Long, taking a pitchout over left tackle, making the score 18-0. The Tigers came right back with Dick Hernander, in seven plays, scoring from the seven-yard-line. Scardina kicked the extra point, and F.S.C. led 18-7.

F.S.C. fumbled on the Tiger 44, and the Tigers recovered. The Bulldogs held them for no gain on two downs, and in the third down it appeared Sparrow would be caught again for no gain. But he got it off and Ted Watkins got behind the secondary and ran 55 yards for a score. Scardina missed the extra point, and that's how it ended, 18-13!

Passes and Punts: This was the third straight triumph for Coach Cecil Coleman over the Tigers, and it marked the first time the Bulldogs have knocked off both UOP and San Jose State three years running. Aaron Youngblood was Pacific's leading rusher with 58 net yards and a total of 574 for the year, to lead the Tigers in that department. All in all Pacific's campaign was successful in some respects and disappointing in others.

From up San Francisco way there was a rumor that Jack Sparrow would have been offered a bid for the East-West Shrine game had the Tigers won. The Tiger outlook for next year seems to be weaker with the loss of 16 seniors; however, experience pays off on dividends and UOP should do all right. Among the bright spots are Eddie Simas and Vern Garrison up from the frosh with Jim Busher, Lineman of the Year in San Francisco. Among the teams Pacific will play next year are Utah State, Colorado State, B.Y.U., San Jose State, Fresno State, and San Diego State. That's it for 1962!

Fifth, they feel that although a convention would be more purely and ideologically democratic, a committee can more easily assimilate the student's wants and discuss them with fewer time-consuming debates.

Three Seniors To Give Recital In Conservatory Tuesday

Carol Combs, Larry Tyrell, and Michael Vax will present a senior recital in the conservatory December 4, at 8:15 p.m.

"She Loves Me for Myself"

"Not for my Tapers. Yesterday I wore an ordinary pair of slacks and she didn't say a word. What loyalty! Course, I'm back to my Tapers slacks again. No sense in taking chances."
