HIGHWAYMEN TO HIT CAMPUS TONIGHT

PSA Student Seminars Will Discuss Various Student Actions

The Pacific Student Association will be sponsoring a series of seminars on student action. There will be about eight programs in all, one every other week until the end of the semester. Although the final topics have not been assigned, tentative suggestions include: International Student Organizations (e.g. International Student Conference and International Union of Students), Student Civil Liberties, Student Participation in Academic Policy Formation, Student Travel and Study Abroad, Student Civil Rights, Student Political Parties, United States National Student Association and the National Congress, and World University Service.

The seminars will attempt to explore the issues related to each topic and the accomplishments in each of these fields by students. Student speakers active in the area under discussion will present a basis of resource material on the topic will be available to each seminar participant also. Hopefully, this information will lead to a discussion of the topic and its relevance to this campus and to the individual student.

Anyone interested in participating in the seminar series is urged to attend the preliminary meeting

Louis Untermeyer Comes To UOP; Will Speak At Convocation Thursday

Louis Untermeyer, poet, editor, critic, and anthologist will be the speaker at Convocation, February 14 at 11:00 a.m. With some fifty volumes to his credit, he is one of the great names in contemporary literature.

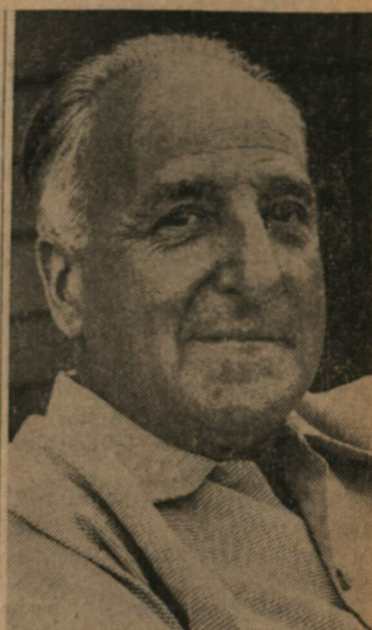

In 1961 a signal honor was conferred upon Mr. Untermeyer when he was appointed Consultant in English Poetry to the Library of Congress.

Biographer was added to his list of literary accomplishments with the publication of his book, "Makers of the Modern World," in which he recounts the lives of writers, artists, scientists, statesmen, philosophers and other cultural leaders who have helped to shape the pattern of our world today. When the Encyclopedia was revised, Untermeyer was chosen to write the article on Modern American poetry.

During World War II he was associated with the Office of War Information as senior editor of publications and writer of foreign radio broadcasts.

Louis Untermeyer was born in New York, reared and, he likes to say "miseducated" there. In a jewelry manufacturing plant in New Jersey he became successfully an office boy, a salesman, and finally manager. At thirty-seven, after a few years abroad, he left business to devote his entire time to writing.

At the beginning of the war he had just completed "A Treasury of Great Poems." Early in 1944 he was transferred to the largest (Continued on Page 2)

Traffic Problem Grows And Grows; Parking Remains A Main Issue

Propositions for a ban on freshman drivers and for a new parking pattern on the Pacific campus are among the ideas being considered by the Campus Safety Committee.

A plan, which includes a ban on freshmen drivers, is merely being considered as one solution to our traffic problem and is not a final decision. The committee will readily accept suggestions for other solutions.

Also under consideration is a new parking pattern which would be initiated in the fall of '63. Among the ideas included in this plan are: (1) assigned parking areas for on campus students with area stickers on the cars, (2) streets with no overnight parking which would leave space for faculty and students who arrive on campus in the morning and (3) improvements on the parking lot behind the Greek houses. The committee is aiming at assured parking for all students.

Other safety plans are the lighting of the area between the Pacific and Raymond campuses (Continued on Page 3)

Big And Little Sisters Honor Chinese Orphan

Big and little sisters celebrated the birthday of Chun Mee, the AWS Chinese orphan, at a party held in Covell Dining Hall last night. The girls donated a penny for each year of their lives, and a representative of each woman's living group presented the donations as gifts toward Chun Mee's support. Chun Mee is a six year old Chinese war orphan. She lives at the Lutheran Primary School in Hong Kong.

Reynolds Honored For Art Achievements

The jury for the National Exhibition of Small Paintings has selected the entry, "Pattern along the San Joaquin," by Richard Reynolds, for inclusion in its 1963 year-long traveling exhibition sponsored by the four Gallery Associates in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mr. Reynolds, pleased to have a painting of his accepted for such a show, was also honored with a Juror's Mention and the reproduction of his painting in the exhibition catalog. The show will travel throughout the United States during 1963 after having been on display in Texas during the month of December, 1962.

Several sculptural pieces by Mr. Reynolds are also located around the campus. The torch-cut steel tiger mounted on the fireplace wall in the lounge of Covell Hall. Another tiger mounted on a pedestal (Continued on Page 4)

Cathy MacKenzie Wins $22.50 For New PSA Card Design

This semester a free student body card worth $22.50 was awarded to Cathy MacKenzie for the winning design in the PSA Card Drive, according to PSA Treasurer Gary Wiler.

The Finance Committee judged the contest and chose Cathy's drawing of the Harriet M. Smith Memorial Gate located at the entrance to UOP.

Wiler wishes to thank all who competed and assisted in the drive.

Highwaymen Balladeer Way Into Conservatory Tomorrow Night

The fabulous Highwaymen are headlining Saturday night's Pacific appearance at the Conservatory along with singers Joe and Eddy. Both groups have been widely acclaimed in the area of folk singing. Tickets for the performance, which will be at 8:30 p.m., are available at the Associated Student's office, at Miracle Music, and at the door. The costs are $1.50 for the back rows, $2.00 for the middle sections and $2.50 for the front rows.

Due to the poor turnout for the Brothers Four, it is imperative that there be a large audience for this concert. The reason is, it is hoped that the receipts for these performances will pay the way for an appearance of Peter, Paul, and Mary at Mardi Gras.

In addition to the practical motive for attendance, there is the pleasure to be had from hearing the group which was recently voted "Most Promising Vocal Group" by the nation's disc jockeys in the annual year-end poll conducted by Cashbox Magazine, one of the music industry's leading trade publications.

The Highwaymen's styling of folk music is making them internationally famous, and they hold the distinction of hitting the show business jackpot with their first recording. "Michael," a reworking of an old spiritual sold over 1,000,000 records. They also recorded the well-known "Cottonfields."

Joe and Eddy began their career in Berkeley eight years ago, when they entered a talent contest. Since this initial appearance they have appeared at the Purple Onion, the Hungry i (with a return engagement of eight weeks), on Don Sherwood's TV show and on the Tonight Show. They have one LP out which is titled "Joe and Eddy."

Movie Portrait Of The City Of (Tin) Angels Scheduled

Two years ago, a group of leading film makers and actors got together on their own time and filmed a picture called "The Savage Eye" for about $65,000 (this is only two years before 20th Century Fox didn't film Cleopatra for under $30,000,000).

The "Eye" is cast down on Los Angeles. It is a look at faith healing temples, roller derbies, strip shows, wrestling fans, transvestites, junkies, and what just crept out of the bingo parlor.

This film is showing at Anderson "Y" this afternoon at 3:00 and tonight at 7:30.

Barbara Baxley, a Pacific Theatre graduate, stars in the picture as a young divorcee through whose experiences and dialogue with her conscience the story is narrated. Gary Merrill is the voice of the conscience.

The picture was written by Ben Maddow who also wrote script for The Unforgiven and The Asphalt Jungle.

No More Fleeing, a French film of European moods of moral indifference at mid-century, accompanies Savage Eye.

"All public, private and parochial school teachers of German who wish to enter their pupils in the contest must select the qualified students and send their names to me before January 12," stated Dr. Liedtke.

Centers where the contests will be held include: University of California at Berkeley; University of the Pacific; Stanford University; the State Colleges at Fresno, Sacramento, Chico and San Francisco; Hartnell College at Salinas, and the University of Hawaii.

Pacific Inaugurates New Course In Advertising

In a move designed to fill the need for better knowledge and understanding of advertising among western students and businessmen, the University of the Pacific has inaugurated a special upper division course in advertising this semester. Dr. Arthur Beckwith, chairman of the University of the Pacific Department of Business Administration, announced that the classes will be conducted by M. M. Craig Spitz, western manager for the Pritchard, Wood international advertising agency, and a veteran of more than 20 years in the advertising business.

There will be no set format for the course as Mr. Spitz plans to lean heavily on seminar type sessions. The general objective will be to provide an accurate concept of advertising's place in our economy and in our society. The course is designed to be a part of a general background for business training. Spitz will also use guest lectures representing the many specialized branches of advertising and related fields, such as public relations and the graphic arts.

The course is being offered on Wednesdays from 7:15 to 9 p.m. Students may register at the Registrar's Office February 2 through 9.

With the spring semester came 112 transfer students to Pacific. This brought the total enrollment of UOP to 2,066 for the spring 1963 semester. Bonkeys Plus People Plus Ball Equal Fun

Nothing is more character revealing than a donkey. This became clear to those watching the Donkey Basketball game held in the Civic Auditorium Friday night, January 11. The audience saw a hilarious show as Stockton merchants and Pacific men, women, and faculty tried to convince their donkeys to head for the right basket at the right time.

No one who saw the show will forget Dean Zimmerman's gallant but futile effort to win the game. Nor will they forget Chris Machado's triple battle with his wig, dark glasses, and obstinate donkey all impeding his progress toward the goal. Steve Olds will be remembered for facing the wrong direction on his donkey, and Bob Scardina for shooting from the wrong angles. The Block P won all its games, and the sororities beat the independents.

It's too bad that more students didn't show up at the game. Besides being entertained, they could have learned a lot about their colleagues. It's quite revealing to see who coaxes his donkey, who pulls him, and who gets in back and pushes.

Tigers Cool S.F. State Gators; Break 7-Game Losing Streak

The Tiger basketball team, a little "rusty" after a two week final examination period layoff, lost to the Alameda County State Pioneers here January 26 by a 60-53 margin.

High point scorers for the Tigers were Chuck Strambler and Bill Wilson with 13 and 10 points, respectively. Strambler also grabbed 13 rebounds in the non WCAC contest.

On January 30 the Tigers dropped their eighth straight contest to the Fresno State Bulldogs by a score of 79-50. Previously the Tigers clobbered the Bulldogs by a 100-82 margin on December 9.

The Tigers could not get their offense to roll and it was apparent that this was not the same caliber of ball played by the Tigers in the December 9 encounter with the Bulldogs. High point men were Bill Wilson with 15 points and Leo Middleton with 10 points.

After eleven seasons as head basketball mentor, Coach Van Sweet announced his resignation effective at the end of the current season. Coach Sweet said, "I decided to resign for family reasons and because I want to get into another field."

Coach Sweet also resigned as Tiger golf coach and manager of Pacific Memorial Stadium. He hopes to stay in Stockton and enter the field of counseling and guidance.

The Tigers snapped their eight-game losing streak last Saturday night with a great "team" effort by defeating the San Francisco State Gators 68 to 63.

The Tigers were trailing by a 33-31 margin at halftime and then took the lead with 15:55 left in the second half and soared ahead at one time by a 10-point margin.

Bill Wilson lead the Bengals with 15 points even though he sat out a good portion of the second half when he tired. Dick Davey had 14 points, 8 points coming when he hit his first four shots of the game. The game was held in the Stagg High School gym with the Tigers hitting the nets with a good .508 per cent field goal rate.
