Oakland, June 8-'86

Dear friend John,

It is more than kind
for you to remember me, and I appreciate it fully,
sending you a "thank you" for every separate and individual cherry. I would have acknowledged sooner, but was in the mixed-up-a-tive-ness of getting Henry off in the country, (he has been very sick again), and then had a thousand things at home and in the library to see to, at once. This is my first free moment before 10 P.M. o' nights, at which time, or by which time, I haven't usually sense enough left to hold a pen.

I do wish you could find time to drop in and see me, if only to put your face in at the door and say 'hail and farewell'.
I know you do come down occasionally, for I hear of you. Hope wife and babies are well. Love to them.

Ever and truly yours,
Ina Carlisle.
