and stay over Sunday?

Don't say for me to come, if it is not convenient.

Mary is not at home today, but I do not think she can go.

I want to see you and hear you talk - & see if you are in any way the same.

How much you have seen and learned and lived & how much you will have to tell - I have been of so little use, for so long a time, that I feel as if I had not half-lived.

With kindest regards to your wife & yourself
I remain your friend
March 1st. 1847. 03
1829 San Pablo
Oakland.

I was delighted to receive your illustrated letter - & thought the sketches as lovely as did your little girl - The one I was most interested in, however was not pretty - I am glad you have prepared me - but I do not believe you look quite so shaggy as you pretend -

I, too, must prepare you - You must not look for a delicate, fairy creature. it pains me to undecieve you, but I think it best - I am not pretty - I do not even feel as if I could be counted so in the score of "pretty is as pretty does" - for I ~~feel~~ feel decidedly cross.

I should love to take a long walk with you & wear it off - there is nothing like it, for improving one's temper - I mean?

After much discussion of what is best. Mary and I have at last decided to go south, to Los Angeles - she to stay in that neighborhood, probably, & I to be with her for three or four months - to try the country and climate -

I want Mamma to come out in May, but I cannot tell whether she will think it best.

If the roads are good,
& the telephone in order,
may I come up Saturday
