Mr John Muir
Martinez Cal.
My Dear Sir

I mail you today my small book on Shasta to which there will be soon added 15 pages devoted to Oregon Scenery, a copy of which I will send you. I regret that I could not have met you before its publication. I am now "working up something of the same kind for Tahiti" and would be greatly pleased if you would make any suggestion in that connection.

Have you ever published your entire works on this Coast? if not, why not?
There has never in my humble opinion been anything written in your line that anywhere near approaches you in general excellence Still hoping that I may have the pleasure of meeting
