about Kamin 11000 yr or more or adding weight to the dust I see a pile of large blowers. 2000 or 20000 grams. What are you doing here. When do you get them back. What are you going to do with them

Nothing can reflect seems more wonderful than the universality of of the interests attached to every man. Nothing seems more or dear or more common - except the very streams that cross the plain lands all taken our attention - even to the marginal we feel like stop to talk to them & say happy fellow how fortunate you are to be here I wish this a blessing for how happy you must be to the streams that flow a crystal head you have to flow over every drop of your sparkling dancing water must feel happy well then you dance <sup>things</sup> to make her find a way to dip your heads into what sunshine to warm & illumine your crystals will may any crystal in your bodies grow in beauty every day & shall with you.

I envy beautiful eyes how fair the cheeks that fill you have from the eyes have from the fringe of brows & flax about your brows. will may your sparkle glow & sparkle. cool shadows fresh rain & snow. blessing & amending all the landscape to show where can you my heart - can you the few miles of <sup>several</sup> flocks on the <sup>with</sup> stream of a sea how long here
