March 13. 1888.

Dear Papa I hope
you are well the baby
is well and sweet we are all well the baby
is smiling every day.
part of the time it
is warm and nice and
part of the time is
cold. when will
you be to come
home dear papa.
I work this letter all
alone.
drip drip the rain is falling chip chip the birds are calling.
the cherry blossoms are

in bloom and the
peach blows are in
bloom.

the baby wrote a
little letter to you.
Grandpa and Grandma
are well
