

1888-07-22

Letter from Annie Wanda Muir to [John Muir], 1888 Jul 22.

Annie Wanda Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Annie Wanda, "Letter from Annie Wanda Muir to [John Muir], 1888 Jul 22." (1888). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1767.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1767>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

July 22. 1888.

My Dear Papa
I hope you are well.
I am well.
Baby is sweeter
than ever and she is very well.
the weather is very warm and the
mosquitoes are bad.
we are still at home.
the mosquitoes bit
me very much and baby too and we had to stay up in your room most of the time.

Tomorrow will be babys birthday and we intend to eat out on the porch for fun
and I think that it will be nice to do it.
grandmama stays
with us a goodel of the time.

now I will begin with a rim, I love the birds their sweet songs
last until the evening
comes then they go
to sleep among the branches sweet.

when will you be home papa.

baby made these scribbles and blots for a letter and says she is writing to papa.

the baby went to sleep holding your picture and saying over and over "I love my dear papa I love
my dear papa."

Grandpa and Grand
Ma are well.

Grandma stays with us every night since auntie went to the city.

O Papapa when are you coming home?

I want to see you so
very much my dear
Papa.

I wish I could be with you and see those beautiful mountains. I want to kiss you papa, goodbye.
Annie Wanda Chiu.