[ca. Aug. 1888]

Dear Papa your two letters reached me safely with the flowers and they were so lovely. I was sorry that the bear caught your hand. How I wish I could go with you and see the lovely flowers and trees and climb the mountains and see the glaciers and drink the cold pure glacier water.

O Papa please bring me some of the bonny spireas and sweet wild roses. did you eat many of those nice berries? I wish I could go along and eat as many as I want. we have fine big peaches and Bartletts here, but no berries.

Those mountains must be perfectly grand, but O Papa dont climb too far if the weather is stormy.

When are you coming home dear Papa? I want to see you so much and Helen says too very often, "'I want to see my own dear Papa I goin write tell him to come home and stay with baby'", and she did look so sweet trying to write.

Aunt Annie reached Lincoln all right and well August 1.

I hope you will send me another letter very soon, and some bonny mosses and many ferns.

Your loving little girl,

Annie Wanda Muir.
