shoulder and often shoots upward I am not troubled so much through the day as through the night. Hot flannel seems to help me.

if you can suggest any thing to rub on it I would be obliged.

I hope you will all have a very happy Christmas

With kindest love to all I am affectionately

Dear Emma

It seems a very long time since I have had a letter from any of you but I expect you are all well

We are all our friends to think we are so near Christmas and still have beautiful weather

We have not had any snow at all and no
severe frosts

We have had a church fair and they realized over two hundred dollars, and last week we had a fair for the improvement of the Cemetery and they got six hundred dollars a great deal of work has been done there
such as making roads and putting water all through it. The place has been neglected for years but looks well now

Dear Dad

I hope you are well
and as busy as ever

Annie's health seems better than it was when she came home
she still uses her
medicines

For some months just I have been troubled with Pains in my neck. Probably it is only cold. The Pain often begins on the bone behind my right ear
and goes down my
