

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1889-06-17

Letter from Mary [Muir] to Emma [Muir], 1889 Jun 17.

Mary Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Mary, "Letter from Mary [Muir] to Emma [Muir], 1889 Jun 17." (1889). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1821.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1821>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

(1)

Phillips Wis.

June, 17/89.

Dear Sister Emma!

Do not be alarmed at seeing a letter from me, I have often realized that I ought to write to you but you know how easy it is for house-keepers to be poor correspondants - but as the present occasion gives additional reason why I should write I gladly do so. Doubtless you are wondering how well I am, I am very well considering all things - and have no fear as to coming events further than that - the little being may be very little and very frail, still we will hope for the best, and a short time now will tell the story -

(2)

Our little people are in the best of health and Willis is feeling better than he did a few ^{weeks} days ago, He has hardly been relieved from boils in all this time but they are coming smaller and smaller -

(3)

How is your family? I hear so little of you that - I wish you would write a sort of history of yourselves - or maybe Anita will find time for something of the kind during her vacation - and I should be very grateful - and perhaps she might include an outline of Annie Reid Waterman's wedding. - I received wedding cards -

(4)

Now Emma dear may I be so happy as to receive a few lines from you?

I have just passed a week in bed but hope to dress today. There has been no relief from my difficulty -

With much love to Dr. Brother. I remain lovingly, Sister Mary.