Chico, June 19, 1889.

Dear Muir,

Your very kind letter of 18th inst. duly to hand this morning. Our interpretation of your telegram was that you were about to make us a visit. Hopes blasted! Of course I shall be glad to see your friend W. Johnson, and do anything in my power for him.

But I cannot be a contributor to his magazine, for I cannot write - there is nothing literary in my composition. Mrs Bidwell - as I am - is disappointed in not seeing your wife and self, before our departure for Colorado Springs, Colo. which will be within two weeks we hope. With best wishes, in which my wife cordially unites, I am very sincerely

Your friend

John Bidwell
