

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1889-06-25

Letter from C. C. Parry to John Muir, 1889 Jun 25.

C. C. Parry

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Parry, C. C., "Letter from C. C. Parry to John Muir, 1889 Jun 25." (1889). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1826.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1826>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

~~J. S. Hemmen,~~
Botanist for the State Board of Forestry,
California Hall, 1015 Clay Street,

Oakland, Cal., June 25th 1889

Dear Miss

Coming back from the South after a weeks absence I see your telegram - which like the Irishmans Chicken, when being bolted - supposing it was a fresh egg - "spoke too late"

I am still on the go between times, just back from Mr. Terry and tomorrow for Per. Robt. &c back last of the week - after which I expect to keep quiet for a time. While departing the pro + con of a journey East. Let me know before I start. What you have on the tapis.

A late letter from Mrs. P. says she is also on the wing and - expected

To fall in with Miss Annie at Postage City!

The Seminars are wrestling with the forest question: I now at Shasta counting the scales on the pine flowers. &c. &c.

Heard by last accounts at Tehachapi on his way to Colorado to spend some of the loose funds of McDonald.

The funniest thing with the marriage of the Curran to her behaved assistant (not Harkness) at the Acady! What will the harvest be?

Hope wife & babies are well.

Yours truly
C.C. Parry

01349