Martinez Jun 28. 1884.

My dear Mr Johnson.

Not having heard from you since the receipt of your note of the 22nd I suppose you are still in S. F. unable to bear away from the sun & fog & trade winds of this glorious climate.

I want to wish you adieu at Port Costa as you go for a last handshake & good advice etc.

I wish you will have a good time at Chico & that the temperature there will be ardent enough to melt the blues.

Parry has returned. Hope you saw him.

With pleasant memories of your visit I am ever truly yours
John Muir
