Dear Brother & Sister

I join with Mother in the inclosed wish and greeting.

I congratulate you upon the happiness of your circumstances, this joyful Christmas time, and wish you both many returns of the same.
With a kiss for baby I close.
Sincerely your sister Annie.

Portage 13th Dec^r 1889

Dear John & Louie

Hoping you are all well, I send you this small token of remembrance.

Our Christmas meeting is now very small indeed - but our absent ones are by no means forgotten -

I expect you know what a sad experience has been Joanna's, however her health is improving now.
Wishing you every happiness with the Compliments of the season
I am Lovingly Mother

Portage, Dec. 13th, 1889.

Dear John and Louie:

Hoping you are all well, I send you this small token of remembrance. Our Christmas meeting is now very small indeed, but our absent ones are by no means forgotten.

I expect you know what a sad experience has been Joanna's; however, her health is improving now. Wishing you every happiness, with the compliments of the season, I am,

Lovingly,

Mother.

Dear Brother and Sister:

I join with Mother in the inclosed wish and greeting. I congratulate you upon the happiness of your circumstances this joyful Christmas time, and I wish you both many returns of the same. With a kiss for baby, I close,

Lovingly your sister

Annie.
