There is nothing on the place in Kansas but a few horses & the cow & J. thought Harry could take care of everything there & perhaps he could earn a few dollars to help keep us this winter he has worked a month or five weeks breaking horses, but the weather has not been favorable for about three weeks now, and yesterday Harry's bill of expenses was sent as he is too young, or not ^{thoughtless} ~~that~~ but ~~too~~ a boy to be left so. (he is nineteen) & it has taken ^{him} a good deal more to run the place than it would his father, & nothing to meet it. it costs to go down to see about things, & J. thinks, or fears he could make little or nothing of the place

My dear Brother John
Your kind and comforting letter of Jan 13th was received yesterday. & I am glad to know you are all well I had made up my mind to write to you within a few days as it began to seem long since we heard from you, but not such a letter as this, may be our always happy & pleasant correspondence has been sadly mixed for a long time with distressing affairs & I don't like to write about them John, but your ever kindly interest in us encourages me to confide in you
The land & the gr. sec. that we

 Trouble has seemed to so smother John
 that a great
 part of the time
 he seems to be
 to think about it

what would ~~would~~ we do with the place in Kane every thing would be torn down & taken if left alone. I think we had better move down there it would not take much to keep us. Jessie gets thirty five dollars a month & the prospect of more perhaps. she could board or stay with Anna. & Anna has a good home. May is able to teach and will be old enough soon. she is seventeen now. & I think the boys would like it on the farm & I would be glad to be a kind of hermit after what has passed if my family are fairly comfo-
 -table

how glad I will be to see you I sometimes wish I could talk to feared losing, was almost gone - the time was up & he had written a letter & went to mail it, including it to a man for just what was to pay on it, but just then he rec'd a letter from Brother David with a five hundred ^{dollar} check & later Willis Hand sent one hundred dollars which cleared the payment. & payed the dues on the whole & a little more. but in the fall he will again be at the mercy of the R. R. co again & fears he will have to lose it all as a payment of one thousand dollars & arrears, two perhaps. will have to be made on the two sections (about three thousand will clear the third & the third section being school land. is to be payed by one hundred dollar a year payments. for about sixteen years. J. says he would be willing to let it all go with his three thousand dolr worth of improvements also about fifteen hundred dollars which he personally has payed on it. if he could only get enough to pay Sarah out of it. & could get anything to do to make something to live on & pay debt but there is no prospect of making a living, debts out of the question. God only knows what we are to do. John is perfectly discouraged & held down with seemingly insurmountable difficulties old & need. & does not know what to do. or where to turn. after he got rid of the horses (which was sold at a big loss) J. was partly promised help to buy some sheep to put on the place which seemed to him & others to be the best investment, but it was so late when he got through with the horses, he was put off for or till another ^{fall} & no certainty of it then.

with you I dreamed you were here the other night. I hope you are not writing too hard. I hear you are going to write for the Centuary again. we have not heard that Mary & family have moved to Kearney yet. we anxiously hope they will make us a visit on their way.

we are better now but have all had this La Grippe, or influenza except May. John & John. had it light. it griped me hard for two weeks. but I am much better. but so nervous.

Give my love to Louie & the children, what a comfort & pleasure the little girls must be to you all now. also remember me to Dr. & Mrs. Strutzel.

pardn me John if I have done wrong in writing this doleful letter. but your kindly sympathy is precious as ever
