

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

---

1890-04-29

Letter from John Muir to [David Gilrye Muir], 1890 Apr 29.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [David Gilrye Muir], 1890 Apr 29." (1890). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1902.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1902>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Martinez April 29th 1890

Dear Brother Dan.

How have you come through the winter - have you & your family escaped the influenza, I have not heard a word from you all the winter. Most of us have been affected more or less but we are now well & the weather begins to be worthy of California once more. What do you hear of John Keit, I asked him to come out here but of course he finds it hard to leave the land & begin a new business at his time of life. I had a letter from Maggie a day or two ago. She is of course greatly discouraged, & is also pinched for want of money at times. Write to her often & enclose a few dollars now & then. This will go far to cheer her up. Do you hear from Dan, He never writes to me & I can get none of the money he owes. With love to all.