

1890-04-30

Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Daniel [H. Muir], 1890 Apr 30.

Ann G. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann G., "Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Daniel [H. Muir], 1890 Apr 30." (1890). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1904.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1904>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

I rather think Mary's opinion of Kearney is not quite so favorable as it was at first, still I hope they will like to live there

With love to all Affectionately
Mother

Portage April 30 1890

Dear Daniel

Your kind letter of March 23 was gladly received, also the box of beautiful spring flowers was very cheering to see

I am much pleased to know you are all well, and if the Baber Boy has not yet arrived to all the dignities you name for him - I hope he will before very long I hope I shall yet have the pleasure of seeing him, as well as all of you

We have had a very mild pleasant winter

with very little snow or sleighing, but a great deal of sickness every where and our family have had a good share of it; but I am thankful to write we are all in our usual health again.

A letter from California tells us of the same sickness there but John and his family are all well again.
He is again writing for the ~~Centenary~~ May magazine although his big book is not yet finished.

We were surprised to have a visit from John Reid. He looks well business brought him to Chicago and he came here only for a day or two —

Joanna has decided to stay in Partridge all of the summer as business still keeps Walter in Philadelphia.
Her rooms with us being upstairs, did not suit her any longer as baby is now quite heavy so she has found rooms quite near to us that is just what she wanted we are glad she is still so near us.

Perhaps you know that all Davids family are in S. Dakota. Will is much better pleased with the work there than here, and they are all together again.