

1890-06-28

Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Dan[iel H. Muir], 1890 Jun 28.

Ann G. Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Ann G., "Letter from [Ann G. Muir] to Dan[iel H. Muir], 1890 Jun 28." (1890). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1925.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1925>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Portage June 28th 1890

Dear Dad

Tomorrow being your Birthday I wish to congratulate you, and wish you will yet live to enjoy very many happy Birthdays.

I hope you are all well and trust the dear boy is growing nicely.

A letter from John informs me that he intended to start for Alaska, on the 14th of this month. He intended to sail on the City of Puebla to Fort Townsend, then

He will take the Queen of the Pacific for Glacier Bay.
He also sent a clipping from a San Francisco Paper telling us about others that are going also, I hope he will be spared to come to his family in safety again.

I have been reading in the Papers about a cyclone that struck London, and I am anxious to know if it came near your part of the city.

We have had several great thunder storms but no great damage has occurred - we are having very hot weather for over a week and it still continues.

Joanna is still in Portage and Walter is still in Philadelphia at present she thinks of going to the country with the children for a month or so, as the weather is so hot here -

Annie has just received Anita's letter. I am glad to know the storm did not occur in your district.

Annie joins me in love and in congratulations to you, and to all the family.

Affectionately
Mother