

1890-07-03

Letter from Annie Wanda Muir to [John Muir], 1890 Jul 3.

Annie Wanda Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, Annie Wanda, "Letter from Annie Wanda Muir to [John Muir], 1890 Jul 3." (1890). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1926.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1926>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

July 31, 1890

My own Dear Papa, I do hope you are well and warm again,
the letter you sent me, I enjoyed reading it very much and it was beautiful. O I wish I could be with you and see the great blue
Ocean, and the whales and birds.
I hope the sun is bright where you are, and that the fog will go away.
It is very warm and nice here.
Apples and peaches are selling at a good price. Baby Helen is writing you a little letter too. The grass has turned yellow, and the roads are dusty and it is summer but I suppose it is mudie where you are. there is a bee hive in the dining-room Chinane and they 09175

sting me very very much and it hurts. the cat and Carlo is all right and have learned to agree.

your loving little girl
Annie Wanda Muir.

DEAR PAPA

[Illegible handwritten text]

HELEN

Original located at University of the Pacific Library Holt-Atherton Special Collections