Portage Dec: 10th 1890

Dear Emma

As we are now
nearing Christmas tide
I enclose this Bill to you hoping you can make it convenient to procure something for the children from me. Hoping you will all have a very happy Christmas time I have just now been handed Mabel's letter I am glad she has not forgotten me, I will write a letter to her before long

We are all in our usual health here

We begin to hear a great deal about the grippe again, but I think there is none in Portage

With sincere love to you all I am affectionately Mother
