Dec 25 1890

My dear Mr Muir.

Wife & I wish you and yours a very merry Christmas & a happy New Year.

We have just returned here to spend Christmas with Mr Robinson & family and will probably remain till after New Year. Mr R will then take us in his car and make a tour of Southern California. I hope to reach home about the middle of January to the 20th.

I suppose you wrote to Mr Keist asking him to hold that pictures (view in Lake Co) for me till I could reach home and see if it will go in the space I wish it. It will have a fine light then & show to advantage and I am sure that with that picture

I can be of some assistance to Mr. Smith in disposing of others - Would like you to write me whether he is willing to hold it for me. I shall take the picture if it will possibly go in the space intended.

Wife & I look back with much pleasure to our pleasant visit to you & your delightful family -

Please direct here in care of D. B. Robinson -

With kind regards to you all -

From my wife
A. H. Sellers
