Dear Mr. Muir:

Having heard that Professor Sargent is home again (though I have not had the pleasure to see him), I assume that you, too, have come back from the wilderness, and perhaps are good enough to be at work on articles for the Atlantic. I am now trying to put together the best material that I have in hand or that is in sight for the ~~December~~ Atlantic. Manuscripts for this number ought not to be received much later than the middle of October. I wonder if we may not then have the pleasure of publishing a paper by you about some of the national parks?

And about the book ?

Very sincerely yours ,

John Muir, Esq.

Walter H. Page
