CHOIR TAKES OFF ON EASTER JAUNT

LEIGH, MITCHUM—Clark Gives Out Parade Rules For Mardi Gras

Mardi Gras news was announced this week by Bob Clark, Chairman of the Mardi Gras Parade. The theme of the parade is to be "Golden Cavalcade of California," depicting the growth and development of California for the past 100 years.

Bob Clark announced the following rules governing entries in the parade:

EACH LIMITED

(1) Each organization is limited to one entry. However, there is no limitation upon the size or number of participants within an organization as long as they are active members.

(2) The entire entry of each organization must follow one theme. Each entry is to be a float. It may be a plain float, or accompanied by a band or a skit, or a combination of all three. Any entry other than these must be submitted in detail.

(3) The cost of the individual entries is not to exceed $35.00.

(4) A group of phases of California history is to be submitted by the parade committee and from these each organization will choose the desired phase.

LEIGH, MITCHUM

Several important celebrities are being contacted to see if they will join in Pacific's annual celebration of Mardi Gras, Darrell Richardson, General Chairman of Mardi Gras, announced Tuesday night at ex-committee. Among those being contacted are: the Lieutenant Governor of the state; the mayors of Stockton, Sacramento, and San Francisco; Actor Robert Mitchum; former Pacificite Janet Leigh.

The College of the Pacific A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Professor J. Russell Bodley, will leave next Friday to sing Easter Sunday services at Mirror Lake, Yosemite. In its eighth trip of this kind Pacific's choir will be heard over the air on KMJ Fresno between 10 and 10:30, the Park service beginning at 10:45.

The coming Easter will introduce 20 choir members to Yosemite, the overture to a grander trek of 40 persons in the Choir Tour to Southern California April 18th to 29th.

SPRING SPORTS RALLY

Spring's the thing, so get in the swing and pick up your gal and join the gang at 6:30, March 29, when the Pacific Band will lead a serpentine of enthusiasts from the campus to the Stockton Theater where they will be entertained by Mel Serventi and his band; the Grape Bowl football pictures narrated by Ernie Smith; and at 7 o'clock the main feature, "The Senator Was Indiscreet," starring William Powell.

Spearheading the rally will be the yell leaders followed by the coaches who will comment on spring sports.

Get your tickets from the PSA office or from a rally committee member. Forty cents with PSA card and 50 cents without.

CHOIRMEN

Yosemite choir members and women are M. Avery, L. Hawkins, B. Mills, P. D'Onofrio, E. Partridge, C. Klamroth, E. Grant, G. Metzler, S. Schwab, D. Cummings, A. Regis, J. Sublett, E. Steiner, S. Yee, P. Berger, G. Tornell, L. Edelman, M. Tripp, E. Pence and R. Hansen.

TRIP SOUTH

Forty voices from the choir will leave on April 18th on a two-week tour which, tentatively, includes Bakersfield, Santa Barbara, Hollywood, and Long Beach. This trip is the first one of its kind since the war.

There are 56 people in the A Cappella Choir but only 40 are allowed to go because of transportation difficulties. These 40 are chosen for musicianship, singing ability, blending of voice and standing in seniority.

CHOIR STARTED IN '21

Bodley, whose task is to choose these people, has been directing the A Cappella Choir since 1934. The choir was started in 1921 by Mr. Charles M. Dennis and has been touring every year since their organization. Last year they set a record by going to Salt Lake City to sing in the Mormon Tabernacle before an audience of 8000 people.

In most cities, the choir sings in the local Methodist Church. The members of the churches turn over their extra rooms for the use of the choir members, and in most places, the church wives cook dinner for the choir. The choir sings at least one and sometimes three concerts every day during the tour. Part of the in-between concert time is spent traveling on the bus and some

TAU KAPPA'S Crowned "Belle Of Archania" "Lil" Mackey

Tau Kappa Kappa's Elizabeth Mackey copped the title of "Belle" Wednesday night and was given a crown of camellias and carnations in the Archania living room before a houseful of girls from the three campus sororities.

HANNA PRESENTS

In the eighth celebration of its kind Alpha Kappa Phi's President Ross Hanna presented "Lil" Mackey with the crown and bracelet locket bearing the house crest.

BLUE EYES

Elizabeth hails from Ross, California, and is a music major in the Stockton Junior College. Blue-eyed, five feet, six inches tall, she attended Tamalpais High School before coming to Pacific.

CAMPUS INTERN'LS ADOPT SOVIET-AMERICAN PLAN DRAFTED AT STANFORD

Eight hundred COP and SJC students climaxed the 1948 International Week Friday by overwhelmingly approving the majority of the resolutions drafted at the Stanford Congress of Soviet-American Relations.

Beulah Watson Culminates Career as Dean

Today marks the culmination of the seven-year career of Miss Beulah Watson as Dean of Women of the Stockton Junior College and the College of the Pacific.

Miss Watson resigned her position early this year with the announcement of her marriage planned for Easter Sunday. Her successor will be Miss Harriet Monroe from the University of Redlands.

The outgoing dean came to Pacific in the Fall of 1940 and immediately became known for her kindness and understanding in dealing with the many problems facing a dean of women. Her gracious and willingness to cooperate has made it a real pleasure to "go see the dean."

In dealing with the Associated Women Students as an organization, Miss Watson has become a prominent figure in accelerating the AWS program. Under her guidance, the AWS has expanded to reach every Pacific woman and has become a recognized institution on the campus.

NO AID TO CHINA

By a vote of 600 to 100, students feel that we should try to convince the Russians of our absence of hostility to their nation; by 500 to 260 they voted for international control of strategic arteries; by 640 to 120 for the "formation of a U. N. agency to plan economic development on a worldwide scale"; and by 760 to 20 for the AMG to "redouble efforts to educate German people to democratic traditions and ideals and maintain through its actions these ideals."

The only resolution voted down was that: "the responsibility for the maintenance of the territorial and political integrity of China be born by the U. N. and immediately withdraw troops and aid from China."

RUSSIANS DON'T WANT IT

Thursday, approximately a thousand students heard William Mandel, author and student, in the auditorium and later in the S.C.A. Mandel's talk was thoroughly documented and during the question period showed an amazing adeptness at answering any questions with well-organized answers and facts. Mandel maintained that Russia does not want war and cannot support an aggressive campaign.

The week began with a panel discussion featuring Elliot Taylor, Malcolm Eiselen, Tom Connolly, Malcom Moule, and Harold Jacoby, which was held in the auditorium Monday. Wednesday, Michael Brickley of Sacramento College spoke in Bannister Hall.

Genoan Artist Finds Pacific, Stockton, the U. S. Wonderful

Adriana Zappatini, a non-English speaking girl from Genoa, Italy, has just finished her second week as a special student in the College of the Pacific Art Department.

Miss Zappatini, who has just come to this country under the immigration quota, is residing at the home of her uncle, Mr. Joseph Zappatini at 705 N. Ophir Street.

CONTRIVING INSTRUCTORS

In class, depending upon the strategic manual contrivings of her instructors was rapidly bewildering the young girl; however, the appearance of several Italian speaking students alleviated her confusion. Recently, she has mentioned the fact that she is interested and has been considering the idea of studying music at the Conservatory.

Five months ago, when her uncle from America visited in Italy, Adriana began making plans for her journey. One of the first preparations she made was taking English lessons from a bonafide Englishman. And in that short time learned to write English quite well and speak a "leetle"

KAEO First Radio Drama

KAEO is broadcasting the first radio drama this coming Monday evening from 9:00-9:30. Monday evening all Pacific students living on campus will be able to hear their student government in action from 9:30 to 10:00.

Jerry Mullin will present an original show, "Us Again," from 9:15 to 9:30 over KAEO.

Art Students Melt, Solder, and Engrave in Jewelry Class

With patient exactness, students of Mr. Earl Washburn's jewelry class are melting, soldering, and engraving silver. Washburn's class is a newly formed unit within the Art Department and has been restricted to senior students.

The students have been working on brooches, pins and earrings. Soon the class will begin work of a more complicated nature with the use of settings.

Owing to the precision and craftsmanship involved, jewelry work is very slow. Some of the projects will require 60 hours of work and it will be drawn out over a period of 10 weeks or more. Those students in the group, however, think of their work not in terms of labor but in terms of beauty and permanence.

EXHIBITS

Exhibits in student art appear at intervals in the upper hall of Weber. Last year the Junior College presented an outdoor art show in addition to the hall exhibit.

This year it is hoped that the two colleges will collaborate and present a joint art exhibit some time in spring.

Most of the construction in the department is confined to the classroom; however, a few of the student artists, interested and participating in extracurricular activities, undertake projects of painting, constructing, and illustrating.

HART AND PORTER

Two such students are Jerry Porter and Herb Hart, who have made numerous signs, silk screen stencils, and posters for the Radio Studio, Little Theater, and for guest speakers on campus.

Herb and Jerry are combining their talents in doing the illustrating for Dr. John H. Sticht's new BULLETIN OF GEOLOGICAL STUDY OF ALASKA. The survey will be a record of the findings of Dr. Sticht and his colleagues there.

Miss Jeanne Inwood is Betrothed To W. F. White of San Francisco

A bit of old Ireland invaded Alpha Theta Tau Sorority Wednesday evening when Miss Jeanne Inwood chose St. Patrick's Day to announce her betrothal to William Francis White.

Jeanne chose the Patron Saint's day because the tradition surrounding the holiday was reminiscent of her recent summer vacation spent in the Shamrock Isle. The news was heralded via the chocolate route to her sorority sisters and the new pledges following the sorority pledging service.

The newly affianced couple will exchange vows at a formal ceremony this summer in St. John's Chapel in Del Monte.

Jeanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Inwood of Carmel and Laguna Beach. She is a graduate of The Bishop's school in La Holla and will complete her college education in June.

The benedict elect is a graduate of College of The Pacific and at present is employed in the Foreign Department of the Anglo Bank in San Francisco. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of Boston, Mass.

Margery Young to Wed Maxwell Graham

Sunday evening at the regular gathering of the College Age Youth Group at Central Methodist Church was the time and place chosen by Miss Margery Young to announce her engagement to Maxwell Graham. Those present discovered the news when each was given a beribboned graham-cracker sandwich with the announcement inside.

Margery is the daughter of Mrs. F. K. Young of Stockton and is a senior in the College of the Pacific, majoring in Religious Education. Her address is 1638 South Tuxedo, Stockton.

Mr. Graham is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Olin M. Graham of Chehalis, Washington. He is a junior in C.O.P. and is preparing for the ministry.

PACIFIC WEEKLY, MARCH 19, 1948

Diamond enthusiasts are expecting great things from BILL McFARLAND (above), who is in his second year as a Tiger hurler. He appears to have cinched a starting job on Hugh McWilliams' mound corps.

TIGER 9 BOUND FOR SOUTH

By DAVE GERBER

The College of Pacific nine travels to the Southland to play their first CCAA game when they encounter San Diego State this coming Monday and Tuesday in a three-game series, which starts with a single game on Monday and ends with a doubleheader the following day.

From there the Tigers continue their Easter trek, stopping at Santa Barbara for another three-game affair Friday and Saturday of Easter week. The games at San Diego will be an early preview of the Pacific's chances to wrest the conference baseball championship from the Aztecs. From all reports the State club will field another strong outfit comparable to the one that just nosed out Pacific in last year's race.

McWILLIAMS UP

Stan McWilliams will probably get the nod to pitch the opener with Lou Bronzan and Bill McFarland chucking the next day. Jerry Haines and John Guilfoyle will head the bucket brigade ready to squelch the fires if the occasion arises.

As to date Pacific's Grapefruit League record starts at two wins and one tie and one loss. Most impressive is the prowess of Tiger hitters, who showed a tendency to belt the ball during the games. Laurie Monroe led the boys with a .407 batting average, with Torvik next at a neat .333. Don

Cub Cagers Grab Runner-Up Spot

By virtue of a 45-42 setback suffered at the hands of Marin JC, Stockton's cagin Jucos were handed the second place award in the Northwest Regional Basketball Tourney concluded in Sacramento last Saturday.

The trip to the National Tourney, which was promised two top teams by the tournament committee, will be denied the local quintet because of the lack of funds. Little more than $700 was netted in the Capital City's initial play-off venture, $2400 being required to send one 12-man squad to Missouri.

The championship Marin club, financed by San Rafael donations, will represent Northern California in the hoop finals. There was no response to Coach Sweet's efforts to effect a similar reaction here.

Despite the Cubs' loss in the tourney's final game, Howard Pearce was the leading scorer of the evening with a total of 17 points. Both Pearce and Bill Wirt were lauded with spots on the All-Five polled by Sacramento sports writers and commentators.

The Cubs opened hostilities last Tuesday with a rousing 58-41 win over Clark College of Washington. On the same evening's card their most feared rivals, San Mateo JC, dropped a two-point decision to Vanport (Washington) College, 45-43.

Van Sweet's men stopped this same Vanport five on Thursday

SWIM SLATES STAINLESS

GAELS HOST BENGALS

Bruins, Mustangs
Bow on South Swing

By JOE STANISLAWSKY

Fresh from a twin killing in the southland, the rapidly improving Bengals journey to Moraga this afternoon for a return swim meet against the Galloping Gaels. Earlier this month, the Tigers dunked the Blue and Red by a 59 to 16 count.

MILD UPSET

The 38 to 37 loss suffered by the well regarded UCLA Bruins at the claws of the Bengals last Saturday in Westwood has been, by far, the outstanding performance by the Tigers this season. Full credit must go to all members of the traveling squad on their drive and fight when it seemed, on paper anyway, that the Bruins had too many weapons to throw against a Bengal team that was not at full strength for the meet.

RELAY DECIDES IT

Going into the last event of the afternoon the Bengals were trailing 31 to 37, with the 400-yard

Juco Mermen Meet SFCC Rams Today

Continuing on their winning ways, the JC swimming team put the skids on San Francisco State, 47 to 28, last Saturday in the local pool, before a handful of spectators.

The Cubs were rather stingy in giving out first places, since the Staters could only take first place honors in the last event of the day, the 400-yard relay.

Highlighting the Jucos were Bill Phillips and Chuck Moore. Both swimmers were doubles winners for the afternoon. Phillips garnered first places in the 50 and 100-yard free style, while Moore pulled in with victories in the 220 and 440-yard free styles.

MEET TODAY

While the varsity is in Moraga swimming against the Gaels, Coach Bill Anttila will be sending his forces against the newly named City College of San Francisco at 3 p. m. in the local pool.

ANTTILA'S RESERVE SPLASHERS MEASURED STOCKTON HIGH WEDNESDAY, WINNING ALL BUT ONE EVENT.

relay coming up. The COP team of French, Boyd, Wright, and Steel nosed out the Bruin relay entry by inches.

CAL POLY DUMPED

The Tigers got off to a winning weekend last Friday in San Luis Obispo by swamping Cal Poly 58 to 17. The Bengals took every event on the afternoon's card, except the 440-yard free style.

COURT PACK TO VIE WITH GOLDEN BEAR

California's Golden Bears invade Oak Park tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 and will attempt to score their first victory over Pacific in tennis over a three year span. Not since the war have Coach Phil Garlington's netters dropped a match to the Pacific Coast Conference powerhouse. In 1946 the Tigers copped two matches from the Bears and last year the Bengals scored a repeat twin, dumping the Berkeley Bears 6-3 and 7-2.

EVEN UP

Tomorrow's matches are rated a toss-up by Garlington as his club isn't quite as strong as last year's team, while Coach Dick Steven's Blue and Gold net squad is sounder than last year's outfit. Leading the invaders is Dick Grenfell, a former doubles partner of Hank Pfister, his opponent tomorrow, while the two were stationed at Treasure Island. Hank and Dick have met many times with Hank always coming out on top, although always close. In their last meeting "Hankus Pankus" defeated Grenfell in a torrid three-set match in the NCIC at Berkeley. Grenfell, who played number five for California last year, is greatly improved and will be out to end Pfister's jinx.

HAMILTON TWO

Hard-hitting Don Hamilton will probably hold down the number two slot for COP and will be meeting another blaster in George Gossler, last year's Northern California's JC champ from Salinas JC. This match promises to be a slugfest.

Either red-headed Clint Arbuckle or Ted Collins will be holding down the number three and four positions, depending upon which one wins this week's challenge match between the two. Playing number three for Cal is fighting Phil Seymour who bowed to Collins in a hard-fought three-setter last year. In the number four slot is Morris Sockolov for the Bears. Morris is a former Coast Junior champ who last year was in a slump but is reported back on the team this year.

Expected doubles line-ups find Pfister-Hamilton opposing Grenfell-Gossler, Collins-Arbuckle vs. Phil Seymour and Witt, and Ellsworth-Oglesby vs. Bob Seymour and Sockolov.

TIGER CUBS IN TWIN BILL

Weather permitting, Van Sweet's Stockton Jaycee nine will play their second road game of the year when they roll into San Jose tomorrow for a double-headed skirmish with the Santa Clara Frosh.

Sweet disclosed that Saturday's opponents have had four of their last six scheduled contests rained out. Thus the Prune City frosh should be lacking the necessary polish also.

The Jucos will take the field with Don Madden on first, George Albano at second, Lloyd Chelli holding down third and Jim Bloz replacing the ineligible Chuck Davis in the shortpatch. The heavy slugging of Russ Overacker and Wes Miller, the remodeled infielder, feature the Cubs' garden staff. In center field Sweet has the swift Jim Gebhardt, who is also a competent stick man.

Veto Ramirez will draw mound duty in the opener with Bob Grunski pitching the nightcap. Lawrence Gentry is listed as the number one backstop followed by Nathan Lane.

BENGAL BEATS

By NORM RITTER

REMIT ONE ONION corsage to the Northwest Regional Basketball Tournament Committee for their tremendous job of tub-thumping. The committee's publicists had every team and their fans believing their initial venture would finance $4800 worth of traveling. The rules of the tourney stipulated that the winning and the runner-up team be awarded with trips to the National Championship Playoffs to be staged in Springfield, Missouri.

Though the committee assumed no obligation, they implied that the two complying teams would receive the necessary appropriations. After the extravaganza proved a monetary flop—it netted only $700—its directors that they "had hoped to finance the eastern delegation."

The winning Marin JC Tars obtained the needed funds by a local, San Rafael, campaign. A similar attempt instigated by VAN SWEET was clipped in the bud by Stockton philanthropists.

FINAL CCAA individual scoring tabulations show Big Stan to be sixth in the rankings with BUD PROULX a close seventh. McWilliams totaled 121 points in league play, while Bud dunked 119.

RAY KRING seeks Pacific sports news in a recent letter to this department. Still presiding over a daily program aired over WCVN of San Francisco, Kring wants the hash needed to plug Tiger athletics in his Bay Area broadcast. Winging his way is today's Weekly.

COP GOLFERS DROP MATCH TO JOSEANS

With Andy Blossom and Fred Solomon emerging as the only Tiger winners, San Jose's golfing Spartans defeated the Larry Siemerling-coached squad 17½-9½ last Friday afternoon on the Country Club green.

For the second straight week Blossom played winning golf for the Bengals, but his 3-0 win over Sam Beriteau of the Prune City crew was not sufficient to overcome the visitor's advantage.

The local greenmen engage the California Bears today in a rematch of their golf rivalry which began two weeks ago. Last Friday's results:

Blossom (P) defeated Beriteau, 3-0, and Smith (SJ) de. Vanosse. Team score, SJ 2½-½.

Vertui (SJ) d. Huff, 2-1, and Hardin (P) tied McCarty, 1½-1½. Team score, SJ 3-0.

Solomon (P) de. Voris, 2-1, and Shepherd (SJ) d. McKeegan, 2-1. Team score, SJ 2½-½.

Total, San Jose 17½, Pacific 9½.

Salinas to Face Stockton Netters

Stockton JC Tiger Cubs will make their next tennis stand March 31 when they invade Salinas JC. The Cubs were rained out of their opener last Saturday with San Mateo and thus Wednesday's home match with Menlo JC was their collegiate opener.

According to Coach Ralph Mason the top six men on the ladder at present are Hobart Miller, Jack Atwater, Bill Cunningham, Jamie Ferguson, Phil Korbhatz, and David Campbell. Doubles teams will be composed of Miller-Cunningham and Atwater-Ferguson.

COMPETITION FOR BILLY

The forthcoming Aquacade, to all appearances, seems to be shaping up into a production that even Billy Rose would have a hard time equalling.

Those who witnessed last year's Aquacade here at Pacific haven't forgotten the beauty of the lighting, the gorgeous girls and the demonstrations of perfect rhythm and coordination.

Plans are in progress to secure a big-name swimmer for each of the four nights.

TIGERS HIT ROAD

Brown and Sonny Atkins show a .307 for the four games. Herb Markell, hitting safely three times for six trips at the plate, shows promise. Pitcher Bronzan is proud of his .750 mark for four attempts.

The mound corps is in the hold-your-breath stage with all hopes on the potentials of McWilliams and McFarland coming through. McFarland is looking good with plenty of control of his fast stuff. Lou Bronzan can be counted on when the going gets rough. He pitches with his head as well as his arm.

Intramural Schedule

Due to adverse weather conditions, Intramural Director Gene Stagnaro has scheduled an abbreviated volleyball schedule which will begin Monday, March 28, the first day after Easter vacation.

According to the proposed revisions in volleyball play, the eight teams will compete in eliminations on Monday. Semi-final play is slated for Wednesday with the championship game following on Thursday.

MONDAY

The pairings for Monday follow:

Rhizomia vs. Quonset Warriors.
North Town vs. South Town.
Omega Phi vs. Quonset Buccaneers.
Archania vs. North Hall.

Tigers to Defend Improved Boxers NCIC Net Stake Lose Again

Pacific Tigers, defending Northern California Intercollegiate Champions, will attempt to defend their crown over the Easter holidays in Berkeley, March 24-26. However, expected to win this year's NCIC play are USF's "Domineering Dons."

Last year Pacific scored 13 points followed by USF with 4, California with 2, S. F. State with 2, and 10 other Northern California colleges trailed still further behind. Gone from Phil Garlington's 1947 team are Art Larsen (now at USF but ineligible for competition this year) and George Druliner. These two combined last year to score the great majority of COP's points. Larsen defeated Druliner in the singles finals and the two combined to cop the doubles crown for the Bengals.

PFISTER, TED VETS

Last year Hank Pfister and Ted Collins also picked up points for the Tigers. Pfister pulled off the biggest upset of the tournament in upsetting top-seeded Harry Likas of USF only to bow to team-mate Larsen in the semi-finals. Collins upset Cal's Bill Beale but was knocked out in the quarter-finals by USF's Harry Roache. Pfister and Collins lost out in the quarter-finals of doubles.

Pacific's big hopes in this year's play are Pfister and Don Hamilton, the slugging Burbank lad. The two make a terrific doubles combination and also are real dark-horses in singles. Others expected to make the Berkeley trip are Clint Arbuckle, Collins, Al Levy, and Kent Ellsworth.

HAVE MOYLAN

The USF Dons are heavy favorites to dethrone the Tigers as they are led by Ed Moylan, nation's eighth ranking netter; Harry Likas, one of the finest tennis players in the country; Harry Roache, a tough customer in any league; Connie Catton, one of Northern Cal's best; as well as two other terrific netters in veteran George Kraft and Don Lowenbein.

Other top flight entries include Cal's Dick Grenfell, George Gossler, and Phil Seymour; Stanford's Bob Lewis; Ken McCarthy, the steady Fresno State player, and San Francisco State's ace Joe Wolfson.

An old maid's laughter: "He! He! He!"

Tuesday night, the fistmen of Modesto JC turned back the Pacific boxing team by a score of 5 to 3. The Modestans, facing a much improved Tiger squad, were hard pressed in gaining their second straight victory over Pacific.

A decision, loudly booed by the crowd, gave Chuck Campbell a win over Pacific's Pete Abelar. Everyone in the gym, apparently the judges and referee were looking in another direction, saw Abelar drop Campbell in the first round. Throughout the fight, Pete scored with heavy lefts, but the surprising decision gave the nod to Campbell.

Bob Turner turned loose his fireworks on Tom Clayton, and the Modesto boy left the ring via the TKO route. In one of his finest fights to date, Turner dropped Clayton three times before the bout was stopped. Turner operated smoothly and his timing was a thing of perfection.

Pacific's Bob McMahon laced out a unanimous decision over Al Perez. The lanky Tiger, although tired in the third round, had the fight in control all the way.

Another win was added to Pacific's score when Gene Beadelson gave Modesto's Warren Clelland a working over. This was Beadelson's first fight, and he had a clear decision over the Modesto light-heavyweight.

One of the finest bouts on the card found Pacific's Art Brown losing a decision to Merle Yost. The decision was close, and only Yost's weight advantage helped him to a narrow edge when the fight ended.

Other results:

Ken Hansen (Mod) decisioned Nom Hong (Pac).

Wilbur Owens (Mod) TKO'd Tom Milligan (Pac), second round.

Jacksonmen Entrain For Gaucho Relays

Coach Earl Jackson's thinclad warriors will commence inter-collegiate competition during Easter vacation with their entrance in the Santa Barbara Relays on March 27.

"Bullet Bob" Heck seems destined to play the leading role in any great Tiger conquests, and the 9.5 speedster appears to be in the best of form.

The Striped Cats will have the services of their 440 ace of 1947, Stan McVicker. McVicker is defending his CCAA 440 crown, which the copped last year.

Several grid notables have found their capabilities valuable in the cinder togs of the Jackson brigade. Among them are John Rohde, javelin thrower; Ken Johnson, high jumper, and Stan Goldman in the weights. Bakersfield transferee Sid Hall has also shown considerable promise in the weight division.

EX-COM

By PIERCE WHEELER

"Golden Gate of California" is the title of the Mardis Gras as reported in Monday night's meeting. The Houses will pattern their floats for the parade after different phases in the last hundred years of California history.

Several mayors from nearby townships including the mayor of Sacramento, may be present for the parade. It was suggested that the Queen of the Mardis Gras reign for two days before the parade.

Les Brown has a competitor for the Mardis Gras dance date. Ralph Guild suggested the consideration of Kid Ory whose New Orleans style music might be more in keeping with the carnival atmosphere, besides being much cheaper. The indefinite price of Les Brown has jumped from $1,200 to $1,500. Five radio stations are scheduled to broadcast the dance.

President Burns, present for the meeting, stated that approximately $18,000 was due from the VA and will be used to pay for student offices in the Student Union. A motion was carried approving the borrowing of $2,000 from the lounge fund to help with the offices.

COP JOSE CLASH IN FUND DRIVE

San Jose is to provide keen competition for College of Pacific's World Student Service Fund drive, April 5th through 8th, as the two rivals combat to determine which of the two colleges "cares the most to share" in campaigning for relief dollars. Evaluation will be on a per capita basis, so that COP's smaller enrollment will be no handicap. Collegiate Tigers will have a chance to see the Spartans at an exchange rally in the auditorium on Wednesday evening, April 7th, where the San Jose Staters will provide entertainment in return for our own exchange show.

The WSSF, which includes some 20 contributing nations, provides a five-point program of aid to European and Asiatic students: It provides food, shelter, medical care books and study grants for wanting students.

BROWN, HOLST, BLUM & HUGHES IN COMEDY 'YEARS AGO'

Director DeMarcus Brown this week announced the cast for the fourth and final Little Theater production of the current season. "Years Ago," a delightful comedy of the "Life With Father" era, is the vehicle chosen for presentation on April 30, May 1, 6, 7 and 8.

Cast in the role of the young thespian is Marcia Lou Brown, who scored a huge success in such comedy hits as "Junior Miss" and "Janie." As her father will be seen as Jack Hughes, and Doris Blum will characterize the mother. Others in the cast include Chuck Holst as the "home town boy friend," Penny Fitzgerald, Jeanne Cartmel, Tiny Hall and David Gerber.

COMEDY OF ERRORS

"The Comedy of Errors" has been chosen as the next Studio Theatre presentation. Directed by Byron Meyers, and starring Gene McCabe, Ernie Vonasek, Reb Dickerson, and Bill Graves, the play will be presented April 14, 15, and 16.

OPERA CLASS PRESENTATION

On Friday and Saturday, April 9 and 10, Dr. Lucas Underwood's Opera Class, which last year gave the popular "Gypsy Baron," by Johann Strauss, will give an evening of opera. The program will consist of the fourth act of Puccini's "Manon Lescaut" and the short two-act opera, "La Serva Pedrona," or "The Maid as Mistress," by Pergolesi.

Manon Lescaut is Puccini's first opera success, rivalling successfully with Massenet's opera on the same story. The fourth act takes place on the plains near New Orleans. Manon Lescaut and her lover, Des Grieux, flee to escape the attention of the governor of Louisiana. Manon is ill and dying. Doris Marion will be Manon Lescaut and Jon Pearce, Des Grieux.

La Serva Pedrona is a gay opera about a maid who goes after her master and gets him. Zerbina, the maid, is played by Christine Klamroth and Pandolfo,

EDITORIAL

NO HAMMERS!

Page one of the Weekly recently carried a presidential poll story which included a ballot to be torn out and dropped in the nearby box. There wasn't a red tie to be seen in the area, and no hammers.

On the Monday evening following the editor collected and counted the ballots which read Wallace 92, Warren 54, Stassen 39 and Truman 24. Out of a 3000-man student body, only 254 ballots were submitted and this we deem likely because the poll did not get the build up it should have had. There was no campus evidence that anyone had been hammered into or out of voting.

A gentleman from Stockton wrote to the RECORD last week saying that the student body at Pacific was misled in expressing his preference and that "it is quite certain that everyone so misled was, as far as possible, prevented from expressing his preference."

We think the gentleman was only joking for one does not use words so loosely when writing of free institutions and destroying the liberties of our own country.

"... only a little over eight per cent participated," said the gentleman. This was also noted and mentioned in an article of the March 5th edition, and in an anti-Wallace editorial which lamented the fact that so few persons took part in the poll.

Some people were "... prevented from expressing their preference." This is true. Those members of the student body who do not hold PSA cards did not receive copies of the paper. This is not dictatorship.

If the gentleman from Stockton had read our article of three weeks ago he would have noticed that we said the purpose of the poll was, not only to ascertain the students' preference for president, but to stimulate a healthy interest in the national election. We feel that once the voters have expressed their choice, it is our duty to print it—be it Democratic, Republican, or a member of the third party.

We think we can conduct polls without hammers.

MONSOONS

Dear Editor:

I can't figure out why so many people are complaining about the WEEKLY when it doesn't hurt them at all. Last week someone wrote that the WEEKLY wasn't keeping up on controversial issues. I beg to differ. The WEEKLY is too controversial, and I can prove it.

A few weeks ago, my name was mentioned as a candidate for presidency along with Truman, Wallace, Dewey and a few of my contemporaries. If the typesetter will raise a couple inverted commas, I'd like to quote from that issue: If you vote for "Ralph Guild ... include the name of a legitimate candidate too." Not only did you misrepresent my family background, you have ruined any chances I may have had as a dark horse.

Piano Lessons?

The day after that edition hit the street, I received a call from my campaign headquarters in Washington insisting that I sue. After all, 75,000 bucks a year isn't to be sneezed at ... not even in the spring. I decided to ignore the story and continue my piano lessons in case I did become president. But! The following week, what did I read?

At first I thought it was my grade point. But no, I've been defeated (and I'm going to look silly running around on my ankles). Again Washington called ... this time they called collect. It was my publicity agent Igor, author of that best seller, "Communists Make Strange Red Fellows." "Comrade!" he shouted, "with this sort of thing going on, how can we stand a chance of winning with our 4th Party?" Igor joined the 4th Party when he was thrown out of the other three. "If this goes on, you won't even run on a laundry ticket."

Igor Bumped His Head

Igor was right. "And remember," concluded Igor, "no ticket, no washy-ton." Igor has had a strange sense of humor ever since he fell and bumped his head on the steppes. That was the last of Igor and the 4th Party. It is rumored that he is trying to start

Emily Post Lurks on Campus

By NANCY NICHOLS

Did you know that—Emily Post the second is lurking right here on our peaceful campus? She is another of the recent influx of reds that is running the student government and is a powerful influence, to say the least. For to her come some of the most weighty student issues, some of the most delicate decisions and serious problems. Who but Marilyn McClintock, Chairman of the AWS Standards Committee, has the final say on what will be the proper dress (New Look or Old omitted) for each social function of the P.S.A. or A.W.S.? Who is that delightful person who grants extra hours for the extra-special affairs, and who is the friend that helps give out the campus' to the tardy ones who still can't quite manage to struggle in under the wire? Who has the job of keeping Pacific's traditions alive and respected during her term of office? That Clinny, combination Simon Legree and guardian angel.

Marilyn was born in Sacramento, June 25, 1926 (Ha! She can—vote) and attended Sacramento High School where she was active on the ever present Rally Committee as well as a member of K.T., local sorority. She then went to Sacramento J. C. for one year where she was again a Rally member (R.G. take notice) Maybe it was just too hot up there in the capital, or a 5th Party in a small California town named Red Bluff.

There you have it. Igor not knowing where his next bowl of borsch is coming from and my dreams of the White House (without balcony) put behind the 1948 ball.

Not controversial? ? Someone should put that schmo in the know.

Ralph Guild

The Weekly hangs its head in shame and announces that Guild's background is as untainted as the flowers in May.

The reporter who wrote the story did not abide by the rule that Herb Caen of the Chronicle laid down for newspapermen recently. Mr. Caen said, "get it first, and get it right; but get it right first." The reporter got it first, but he didn't get it right; therefore he got it in the end. He was fired and he will never work on a self-respecting newspaper again.

As for Mr. Guild's candidacy, we have seen the light and are hopping on the bandwagon. We are thinking of starting a campaign for Guild that will make Hearst's present MacArthur drive perhaps the lure of Pacific did the job, but in 1945 Clinny decided to try C.O.P. She's been here ever since. By the way, somewhere beneath that red hair must be some strong pioneer traits, for not only did she journey to Stockton, she managed to move into unfinished North Hall (now under the strong rule of the teams) and was one of the hardy souls who camped in brand new West Hall in the Fall of 1946. She was secretary of the dorm that semester, using a couple of saw-horses and a nice knotty board for a desk.

Marilyn plans to graduate in June as a Business Administration major, but the wanderlust won't let her rest on that. With the fond vision of becoming a lawyer, she will set out for Hastings College—and we feel she won't disappoint her ambitions. (A red-header lawyer—wouldn't be bad!)

As Chairman of the A.W.S. Executive Council, it is Clinny's job to help decide what will be done about the Guilty Ones who are over a half-hour late—it is not a pleasant job nor an easy one, but it is in good hands. For Clinny is a student too, we'll venture a guess that she's had more than one campus herself. So, you sinners, don't worry—if you are late, Clinny won't give you more than a month or two in solitary—But he assured, it WILL be legal!
