ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

ASSISTANT EDITOR.

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, Cal.

My dear Muir,

Is there any chance whatever of your going to the Klondike for any purpose? <sup>If so, we wish an article or two.</sup> Have you ever been in that region, and if so is there anything of interest that you could write at once— say, a page or two?

May I suggest that in disposing of your Atlantic articles you reserve the book rights. If you say nothing about it they will consider that they have bought the book rights and you will not be free to make arrangements afterward, and if those articles and the ones we have already published naturally make a volume, I think our publishers would be glad to undertake its publication.

Yours faithfully,

R. U. Johnson.
