

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1897-01-21

Letter from [Abbigail A. Allen] to John Muir, [1897?] 21.

Abbigail A. Allen

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Allen, Abbigail A., "Letter from [Abbigail A. Allen] to John Muir, [1897?] 21." (1897). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2049.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2049>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

237 of your books again and came on this little trip turning the key on the beam above searing for any of my young neighbors & as in my absence, for this I have been furnished for my laugh and pleasure shall enclose copy of the Allen poem or lines of "Mississin" to the letter saying that sent me her photo and if she wishes one to the wife, might be better.

02203

C17

Dear Mr. Allen
New York

Dear Mr. Allen
It was too good of you to so quickly send and got the story of the "Leg and the Tiger" -

I think you must be in high favor with the Publishers to have found what you asked for so soon and how easily you write such a human story without tears

I have ^{shed} tears and could only stop them